

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1121

Qin Mingzhu and Baili Yan were very satisfied. It seemed that Yun Chujiu was really not enlightened. She did not even grasp such a good opportunity. That meant that she did not have any ill intentions toward His Excellency. That b*tch Yin Xinlian was indeed only trying to sow discord.

Yun Chujiu glanced at the two people who came from the opposite side and cursed in her heart. The Yin sister's constitutions were really strong. In just a short while, they had become lively again!

The two people who came were Yin Xinlian and Yin Sulian. It was obvious that the two of them had freshened up. Although their eyes were still slightly red and swollen, it did not affect their beauty. Instead, it made them look more pitiful.

The two of them reversed their previous initiative. This time, they only bowed slightly and then followed the five of them silently.

Yun Chujiu thought to herself, 'Have they changed their strategy? Are they preparing to play the innocent White Lotus card?'

"Junior Lin, let's go to the library and take a look. Back then, this young master was a model of diligent study and spent most of his time in the library. The tutor guarding the library was full of praise for this young master." Xue Wuji said as he stroked the hair in front of his forehead.

This action immediately caused waves of exclamations from the fangirls. They felt that young master Wuji was too charming.

When everyone reached the front of the library, the instructors of the library had already waited outside the library. When one of the older instructors saw Xue Wuji, he subconsciously frowned.

"Instructor Yan, aren't you very happy to see this young master?! Back then, my relationship with instructor Yan was the best." Xue Wuji smiled wickedly at the older instructor.

Instructor Yan subconsciously took a step back.

'A good relationship? What a joke! Back then, this Xue Wuji had caused me a lot of trouble! He had smeared countless books in the library and even glorified it as helping the academy beautify the books!

'The real reason was that he felt that the covers of those books weren't good-looking!

'There was also a ban on eating in the library. Not only was this fellow brazenly eating in there, he even forced others to eat. This was because if the law didn't punish everyone, he would be able to escape punishment!'

"Instructor Yan, this young master has not returned for many years. I really miss those books that were beautified by this young master back then. I wonder if you can make them out so that all the junior brothers and sisters can appreciate my painting skills?" Xue Wuji had the intention to show off in front of Yun Chujiu.

Naturally, Instructor Yan could not refuse Xue Wuji. He asked his subordinates to take out the few books that Xue Wuji had "Beautified" back then.

When instructor Yan saw the thick stacks of books in the hands of his instructors, he wanted to slap Xue Wuji, who gloated nearby. He had ruined the ancient books in sheepskin scrolls, so there was no way to repair them.

Yun Chujiu saw the messy cover and the corner of her eyes twitched. It turned out that Wu Ji's brain had always been stupid. It was worse than it was now!

If Xue Wuji knew what Yun Chujiu was thinking, he would definitely regret it!

Di Beiming saw that Yun Chujiu was reading seriously and felt a little sour in his heart. He nodded slightly at instructor Yan, then, he said, "Instructor Yan, can we go in and take a look? Don't worry, I will keep an eye on Xue Wuji. I won't let him do anything excessive."

Xue Wuji was about to retort, but he thought about it and decided to endure it. If he quarreled with Di Beiming in public, Little Sister Jiu would definitely be unhappy. He had better not lower himself to the level of that facial paralysis..
