

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1124

The Three Beauties and the others could only watch as Yun Chujiu's courtyard once again activated the isolation array. They could no longer see or hear anything.

Xue Wuji entered the courtyard and looked around. His gaze was immediately attracted by the three beaded tree and the swing. He sat on the swing and swayed back and forth.

Lin Han and Nangong Luoyue were very surprised. They originally thought that the Huang class's dormitory would be very shabby. They did not expect that even though the courtyard was a little small, the houses still looked quite new, moreover, the courtyard was full of flowers and plants, and there were even three fruit trees that had already borne fruit. That swing was especially attractive to Nangong Luoyue, and she also wanted to sit on it to play on it for a while.

Yun Chujiu let the four of them sit on the stone chairs, and then took out a pot of tea, cakes, and spirit fruits to serve the four of them.

Xue Wuji pretended to say a few words, and then impatiently knocked out Lin Han and Nangong Luoyue, the two unlucky fellows, again.

The corner of Yun Chujiu's eyes twitched. It seemed that she had to compensate senior Lin and senior Nangong in the future. Otherwise, she would be letting the two of them down.

"Brother Wuji, it's okay for them to faint once, but you knocked them out again. How are you going to explain it to them later?"

Xue Wuji stroked the hair on his forehead. "Little Sister Jiu, don't worry. I used the charm this time. Their minds will come up with the scenario themselves. Let's continue chatting later."

Yun Chujiu nodded. That was not bad. She did not expect Wu Ji to be so smart.

“Little Sister Jiu, what did that old man ask you to help him with?”

When Yun Chujiu heard Xue Wuji mention that, she grew furious, “That damn old man asked me to copy books! He made me copy all the ancient characters. I don’t know any of them! Prince Charming, brother Wu Ji, do you know how to read ancient characters?”

Di Beiming and Xue Wuji both shook their heads. Not everyone could recognize or read the ancient characters.

“What exactly is that damned old man’s identity? Why do I feel that both of you are afraid of him? Aren’t the two of you bigshots here?” Yun Chujiu asked in puzzlement.

“Cough, cough. Normally speaking, I’m naturally not afraid of anything. It’s just that that old man is very strange. He comes and goes like a ghost. I think back then, I also resisted. Then, then, cough, cough...” Xue Wuji rubbed his nose, he did not continue.

Yun Chujiu’s eyes lit up. “Prince Charming, did brother Wuji get beaten up by that old man?”

Di Beiming curled his lips. “That time, Xue Wuji ate in the library and threatened others to eat with him. Then, he was thrown out of the library by that senior. Furthermore, he was beaten until his face was swollen and he was thrown out! Naturally, he was unwilling to let it go. It was a pity that from that time on if he messed around, he would be beaten up and thrown out of the library.”

Xue Wuji shouted awkwardly, “Enough! Why are you talking about such trivial matters?! Little Sister Jiu, how many books did that old man ask you to copy?”

“A pile of them! Damn it, he wants me to copy books for him every day from now on. I’m going crazy!” Yun Chujiu said angrily.

“Little Jiu, senior has his reasons for doing this. Just copy the books obediently,” Di Beiming said while stroking Yun Chujiu’s small head.

Xue Wuji’s hands were itchy when he saw Di Beiming stroking Yun Chujiu’s hair. However, he could only watch and could not touch it.

“Alright! I’ll take it as practicing calligraphy! It’s just that I don’t know how to read those ancient characters. Otherwise, it would be interesting.” Yun Chujiu felt that her hair was smooth after being touched by Di Beiming a few times..
