

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1133

Yin Sulian's face flushed red as she said repeatedly in anger, "No, no, you're spouting nonsense! Palace mistress, I didn't mean that!" Although the palace mistress knew that Yun Chujiu was pestering her, no matter who it was, they would still be unhappy if they were called old. Therefore, she kept a straight face and did not say a word. Seeing this, Yin Xinlian quickly stood up from her seat, she bowed to the palace master's wife and said, "Palace Master's wife, the 'old man' that Su Lian said just wanted to show her respect to you. She did not mean anything else. Please forgive her." The palace master's wife returned to her previous noble and elegant demeanor and waved her hand. "Forget it! I know that you are all good children. It's not a big deal even if it's an unintentional mistake." "Thank you very much, palace master's wife!" Yin Xinlian gave Yin Sulian a look and the two of them returned to their seats after bowing. The palace master's wife glanced at Yun Chujiu. "Little Jiu, you need to change your tricky personality. It was just an unintentional mistake. How did it become so serious when it came to you?" "When can you change your little family's habits?" When everyone saw that the palace mistress treated the Yin sisters and Yun Chujiu in a completely different way, they came to a conclusion. It seemed that the palace mistress did not like Yun chujiu very much, the care she gave Yun Chujiu before was probably only for the sake of Yun Chujiu's parents. Yun chujiu cursed the palace mistress in her heart! Childish Habits? Ptui! ! How many good things do you have to waste on a Prodigal Old Woman Like You? ! It seemed that if she were to marry her in the future, the key to the treasure house would have to be in her hands. If she were to put it in the hands of the old witch, she would have to show off sooner or later! "Aunty, I knew that you loved me the most in this world! As the saying goes, love is deep and deep. Every Word of yours is full of love for me! Also, these pastries and spiritual fruits are my favorites. I didn't expect you to remember all of them! "Don't worry, I know your good intentions. I Won't take it to Heart!" Yun Chujiu said, she shamelessly picked up a spirit fruit and started munching on it. When she saw that there was an empty seat beside her, she naturally sat down. The palace master's wife was almost blinded by Yun Chujiu's thick skin. If it was an ordinary lady, wouldn't she be ashamed of herself after what she said earlier? ! She, she actually had the face to eat it? ! But under everyone's watchful eyes, she couldn't argue that she just didn't like you and that she just didn't like you, right? The Palace Lord's wife took a deep breath. "Little Jiu girl, other things are fine, but those things, I'm not giving them to you, I'm preparing to reward those students who perform well. Hurry up and take them out, don't Be Naughty." When everyone heard the palace master's wife's words, they immediately turned to look at Yun Chujiu. No matter how thick-skinned you were, the palace master's wife had already said it so clearly. You should at least take out the things, right? "Aunt, how can you be so stingy? ! Although these things aren't bad, they aren't worthy of your noble status at all ! You want to reward them. Saying a few words of encouragement is a great honor to them "Hey, Yin Xinlian, let me ask you, do you want a spiritual weapon or do you want my aunt's encouragement?" "Of course, Xinlian wants the palace mistress'encouragement and affirmation." Yin Xinlian was so angry that she gritted her teeth. Of course, she wanted a spiritual weapon! But could she be honest with her words? ! Yun chujiu nodded. "Then who, you, you, and all of you, do you want a spiritual weapon or my aunt's encouragement and Affirmation?" Yun chujiu casually pointed at the outstanding student representatives present. These people were so depressed that they wanted to vomit blood, but they all said, "Naturally, they want to receive the Hall Master's wife's encouragement and affirmation."
