

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1134

Yun Chujiu clapped her hands. "Aunt, did you hear that? ! They are more willing to receive your encouragement and affirmation, so I will reluctantly accept those pieces of junk that they don't value!" The hall master's wife felt a headache coming on. Initially, she thought that the students of Tianyuan Academy were the favored ones of the heavens, but now that she looked at them, they were a bunch of F*cking trash! Even more trash than the little trash! ! You guys are just going to let her lead you by the nose like that? ? ! Can't you think of a way to refute her? ! ! Dean Huangfu saw that the hall master's wife was so angry that her expression had changed, he hurriedly tried to smooth things over and said, "Hall Master's wife, what they said is right. It is our great honor for you to be able to come to our Tianyuan Academy. Why don't I get a few student representatives to showcase their results and let you appraise them?" The hall master's wife knew that Dean Huangfu was only giving her a way out, so she could only nod her head. "Alright, the students of Tianyuan Academy have always been outstanding. I believe that they will not disappoint me." These student representatives naturally wanted to leave a good impression on the hall master's wife. Although the spirit weapon had been shamelessly taken by Yun Chujiu as her own, it was still extremely beneficial to be able to obtain the hall master's wife's affirmation, thus, each and every one of them scrambled to demonstrate their specialties. Some performed fist techniques, some performed sword techniques, some performed materialization of spiritual energy, and some directly took out refined pills for the palace master's wife to look at.. Almost all of the students performed their specialty moves. Only one person sat as steady as a mountain and ate nonstop. F*ck, she wasn't even full from lunch just now, so she could only eat a few snacks. The palace mistress was in no mood to watch those performances. She had been thinking about how she could make Yun Chujiu lose face and how she could turn the tables. She was really angry today! Not only did she not achieve her goal of coming here, but she also brought along a lot of spirit weapons. It was simply a double loss for the mistress. When the palace mistress saw Yun Chujiu eating and eating, she couldn't help but say, "Little Jiu, the others have all performed their specialties. You've been in school for three months already. Have you learned how to Materialize Your Spirit Energy?" When the crowd heard the palace mistress's question, they all had complicated expressions on their faces. Could it be that they had misunderstood? In fact, the palace mistress had come to stand up for Yun Chujiu? Otherwise, why would she ask Yun Chujiu what she was best at? What this fellow was best at, and what he was most proud of, was the materialization of spiritual power! The palace mistress, however, misunderstood everyone's expressions. She was secretly delighted. It seemed that trash was indeed trash. Yun Chujiu must not have learned how to materialize her spiritual power yet! Coincidentally, Yun Chujiu had been busy cultivating these few days and did not return to the Long Wind Inn. Therefore, shopkeeper Qi did not know about Yun Chujiu's heroic deeds, so the Lady of the hall master naturally had no way of knowing. When Yun Chujiu heard the lady of the Hall master ask this question, an embarrassed expression appeared on her face. "Aunt, you still don't know me? I'm the most lazy person. I've been cultivating for three days and fishing for fish two days, and I've only learned about most of the materialization of spiritual power. It's better not to perform, lest I embarrass you." Everyone wished they could strangle her to death. Aren't you afraid of being struck by lightning for lying so blatantly? ! The level of materialization of spiritual power had crushed all the low-level materialization of spiritual power in a month's time, and you're still not satisfied? The palace master's wife did not know the twists and turns in this matter. When she heard Yun chujiu say this, she felt that Yun Chujiu had not learned it at all, with a sullen face, she said, "You're really disappointing! You are already lucky enough to be able to enter the Tianyuan Academy, yet you still don't know how to improve? "Show me immediately, I want to see how disappointing you are "It can't be that you haven't learned it yet, right?"
