

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1137

Yun Chujiu returned to her seat and crossed her legs as she continued to munch on the pastries. She felt that the palace mistress was actually not bad. She would come over every once in a while to give her some warmth. In a sense, she could be considered a good mother-in-law of Tianyuan! When the palace mistress saw that Yun Chujiu was enjoying the pastries, her heart felt even more stifled. Her face was as heavy as water, and the pressure on her entire being lowered. Everyone could see that the palace master's wife was unhappy, and they finally confirmed one thing in their hearts. The palace master's wife really did not like Yun Chujiu, and the care she had given her before was probably due to her pride. Yin Xinlian's heart moved. Although Su Lian had messed things up a little earlier, this was a great opportunity. She could not only please the palace master's wife, but she could also suppress Yun Chujiu. She had to seize this opportunity. Yin Xinlian stood up from her seat and bowed to the palace mistress. "Palace mistress, Xinlian has done something wrong. Please forgive me." The palace mistress was stunned. "What did you do wrong?" "Some time ago, Yun Chujiu and my sister had an argument. She forced my sister to kneel down in front of everyone to apologize to her. I tried to persuade her, but she refused to budge. I impulsively issued a challenge to her. Five months later, we will compete on the life and Death Arena. "After that, I also regretted it. I felt that I was a little impulsive at the time, but I couldn't take back what I said. Please forgive me, Palace Mistress. Although life and death don't matter on the life and Death Arena., "But I will definitely show mercy when the time comes." Yin Xinlian said with a face full of guilt. Before the palace mistress said anything, Yun Chujiu threw a piece of cake at Yin Xinlian. Yin Xinlian never thought that Yun Chujiu would attack her in front of the palace master's wife. The piece of cake immediately hit her hair bun, and her carefully combed hair turned into a mess. The piece of cake that Yun Chujiu threw was still sticky and stuck stubbornly to Yin Xinlian's hair. Yin Xinlian screamed and jumped up, her face full of fear. She had no idea what had happened. Yin Sulian, who was at the side, cursed angrily, "Yun Chujiu, you B * Tch! What are you trying to do? ! You actually hit my sister in front of the palace master's wife. Just you wait, I won't forgive you. I'm going to cut you into pieces!" The palace master's wife looked at Yin Xinlian, who had disheveled hair, and Yin Sulian, who had no manners at all, and frowned. The Yin sisters used to look smart, but why did they look so stupid today? Yun Chujiu looked at Yin Sulian indifferently. "Are you done cursing? Isn't it my turn to finish? I didn't hit Yin Xinlian. I just felt that she was talking nonsense and wanted to use a sticky cake to cover her mouth, but I didn't throw it accurately and threw it on her hair. Such a person was not worthy to be the representative of our Tianyuan Academy's students. It was simply too embarrassing! It was fine if she had embarrassed the members of Your Yin family, but now that she was representing our Tian Yuan Academy, I really couldn't stand it anymore. What do you mean by forcing Yin Sulian to admit her mistake? Back then, was it Yin Sulian who was so shameless that she insisted on competing with me in materialization of spiritual force? Even after losing the competition, she was still so shameless that she wanted to renege on her debt. What was even more shameless was that Yin Xinlian actually wanted to use a challenge order to threaten me. HMPH! ! I'm representing my aunt's face, why would I be afraid of You? ? ! Isn't it just a life and Death Arena? Let's meet again in five months. You Don't have to say it nicely and still show mercy? In Your Heart, you wish you could strangle me to death. Don't you find it disgusting to say such hypocritical words? When the time comes, let's have a showdown. The one who will lose will definitely be you, Yin Xinlian. Because, my aunt's taste is top-notch. She once said that I'm a once-in-a-lifetime genius, one of the top ten people on the prodigy roll in the future, you Want to compete with me? I'll torture you to death!"
