

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1148

The news of Yun Chujiu sneaking into the trial tower quickly spread throughout the Tianyuan Academy. Although it was Xun Xiu, many people still knew that Yun Chujiu had sneaked into the trial tower. Some people were extremely worried, some people had the mentality of watching a show, while others were gloating over Yun Chujiu's misfortune. "TSK TSK, this Yun Chujiu relied on her sharp tongue to stir up trouble. Let's see what she will do this time." "What to do? She will probably die inside! This trial tower is an ancient divine artifact. Even His Excellency and Young Master Wuji can not break it. Yun Chujiu will never be able to come out!" .. When the Yin sisters heard the news, they were extremely excited. "Sister, this time, Yun Chujiu is dead for sure! She dared to sneak into the trial tower without knowing clearly. She is really courting death." Yin Sulian gloated. Yin Xinlian sneered, "HMPH!" This Yun Chujiu always thought that she was smart. This time, she was just waiting to spend the rest of her life in the trial tower! Moreover, she was constantly bitten to death by demonic beasts. She originally wanted to kill her on the Life and Death Arena. It was really too easy for her "This is called retribution!" "Sister, Yun Chujiu has already been eliminated. Now, you have to deal with Qin Mingzhu and Baili Yan, the two B*tches. Previously, when the palace master's wife came, they were all on Yun Chujiu's side." Yin Sulian gnashed her teeth and said. "The two of them are different from Yun Chujiu. Their family background is on par with ours. We have to take it slowly. Let's go and tell this good news to fourth grandfather. He will definitely be very happy." After the Yin sisters told Deputy Dean Yin about Yun Chujiu sneaking into the trial tower, Deputy Dean Yin felt that half of his injuries had healed. This smelly girl was really courting death. Such a way of dying was simply too miserable.., to be bitten to death repeatedly by demon beasts, then resurrected, and then bitten to death again was truly retribution! Dean Huangfu's intestines were turning green with regret at this moment. It was already useless to blame the tutor who was guarding the trial tower. Moreover, Yun Chujiu took up the majority of the responsibility. This fellow was an unruly person. How could he be so mischievous to actually barge in! Dean Huangfu felt that the dumbest thing he had done was to only tell Yun Chujiu about the trial tower and not tell her that she had to rely on the jade token to enter before she could come out. Dean Huangfu thought of the importance his esteemed self and young master Wuji placed on Yun Chujiu and frowned even more. If these two great Buddhas were to find out about this matter, it was likely that there would be a huge commotion! However, the matter was so important that Dean Huangfu had no choice but to privately send people to send letters to Di Beiming and Xue Wuji. Dean Huangfu was sighing and frowning when he heard the tutor who was guarding the trial tower exclaim, "Heavens! Someone has reached the second level!" Dean Huangfu raised his head and saw that the second level of the trial tower had indeed lit up. However, what was so strange about it? Although the first level of the Spirit Saint Realm could not reach the second level, those above the fourth level of the Spirit Saint Realm could reach the second level. Deputy Dean Xiao also glared at the instructor unhappily. "What are you shouting for? What's so strange about entering the second level? It's not like you've reached the sixth level!" "No, none of the students who entered today have exceeded the fourth level of the Holy Spirit Realm," the teacher mumbled. In his heart, he hated Yun Chujiu to the core. Why did you sneak in for no reason? You've really implicated me. Although everyone felt that it was a small piece of news that someone had skipped a level and entered the second level, it was nothing compared to Yun Chujiu's matter, so no one paid too much attention to it.
