

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1151

The sea-swallowing saber-toothed whale was a twenty-first level sea beast. Its body was extremely tough and it had sharp teeth. It could be said to be the tyrant of the sea. The eyes of the sea-swallowing saber-toothed whale were filled with contempt. Although it was a mirage beast derived from a formation, its intelligence was no different from that of an ordinary demon beast. It really could not understand why such a weak chicken would appear in this trial tower., first level of the spirit sect? Was she deliberately looking for trouble? Just as the sea-swallowing saber-toothed whale was puzzled, it saw the little girl in front of it waving her claws with a smile. "Hi, Lord Whale, how are you!" The sea-swallowing saber-toothed whale stared at Yun chujiu with its huge eyes. It thought to itself, this human little girl is most likely mentally ill. When people who normally come to the trial see me, they either turn around and run away, or they are prepared to fight with me., what is she trying to do? "Lord Whale, I know that I can't beat you, so I won't resist. I'll tell you about my bad luck to relieve your boredom." Yun Chujiu's smile immediately turned into a frown, the speed of the change of expression made the sea-swallowing saber-toothed whale dumbfounded. was this little weakling a color-changing cuttlefish? How did she change her expression so quickly? However, it was not bad to hear from her since she had nothing to do anyway. "Lord Whale, you don't know. I originally wanted to take a look at the situation inside the trial tower, but I didn't expect to be sucked in by a huge force. I'm really unlucky for eight lifetimes! "I usually respect the elderly and love the young. I didn't do anything wicked, so why am I so unlucky? ! "I won't be able to get out of here in this lifetime. I guess I'll have to die countless times before I can truly die. Have you ever seen someone who is even more unlucky than me?" Yun Chujiu said to the point where she was sad, and she even started to cry. The sea-swallowing saber-toothed whale was stunned when it heard that. After it heard that, it couldn't help but open its big mouth and laugh at Yun Chujiu's misfortune. This little weakling was really too pitiful. It was so funny that this whale would die. A fierce look flashed across Yun Chujiu's eyes. She waved her hands repeatedly, and several small purple lightning bolts and small purple needles swam into the sea-swallowing saber-toothed whale's big mouth swiftly. When the sea-swallowing saber-toothed whale discovered it, it was already too late. Its mouth was too big. When it closed its mouth, a lot of small purple lightning bolts and small purple needles had already entered. The sea-swallowing saber-toothed whale was instantly furious! This little weakling is really too sinister. She actually deliberately made me laugh and then tried to sneak attack me. However, you are too naive. With your weak spiritual power attack, it is impossible for it to have any effect on me, i will bite you to death right now. I will let you die countless times! The sea-swallowing saber-toothed whale pounced towards Yun Chujiu. Yun chujiu smiled Evilly and a large basin appeared in her hand. The black ink in it instantly dyed the seawater black, the sea-swallowing saber-toothed whale could not see Yun Chujiu's figure at all. This little weakling was really detestable! Extremely detestable! There was simply too much bad water! However, no matter how many bad ideas you had, you were so weak that you could only accept death. At this moment, the sea-swallowing saber-toothed whale heard a clear voice shouting, "Explode! All of you explode! Blow up this stupid loach!" Just when the sea-swallowing saber-toothed whale was wondering what Yun chujiu meant, it felt a sharp pain in its stomach. Although it looked very strong, its stomach was filled with internal organs. How could it withstand such a spiritual attack, it immediately rolled around in pain. Yun chujiu was not far away. She curled the corner of her mouth and waved her hands continuously. Several purple lightning bolts and purple needles attacked the back of the sea-swallowing saber-toothed whale and its eyes..
