

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1170

Two hours later, Yun Chujiu finally managed to catch her breath. She felt that she had come back to life. She didn't need to worry about the wind blades for the time being. The key problem now was that there were no demonic beasts in this stage. How could she pass it? Yun chujiu thought for a long time but couldn't think of any good ideas. She decided to start meditating and cultivating. After all, there was still a lot of thunder spiritual energy in her Dantian, which was enough for her to use for a period of time. From that day on, Yun Chujiu would only eat and sleep and cultivate. Occasionally, she would run to the ground to check the situation, and when she couldn't hold it anymore, she would jump back into the pit. As time went by, Yun Chujiu found something strange. These wind blades didn't always blow. Sometimes, they would stop, and at night, they would rest for several hours. These wind blades came from the south. Yun Chujiu decided to go to the south to see what the source of these wind blades was. Therefore, Yun chujiu rested up during the day and started to travel at night. When the sun rose, she asked Xiao Hei to dig a hole again. However, the hole this time was much simpler. It was just enough for Yun chujiu to sit inside, then, she continued to travel at night, repeating the cycle.. As the journey progressed, the strength of the wind blades became stronger. It was obvious that they were getting closer to the source of the wind blades. Two days later, Yun Chujiu finally found the source of the wind blades. It was a demon beast that she had never seen before. It was extremely huge, like a snow mountain. Its body was covered with snow-white fur, the wind blades were all emitted from its huge nostrils. As it breathed, the wind blades stopped and continued. Damn, what kind of Demon Beast was this? She had never seen the relevant records. This was too scary! This was completely a moving killing machine! Could it be that she had to get rid of this big monster in order to pass this level? Stop bullshitting! If the monster breathed at her, she would die. How could she kill it? No wonder no one had passed the seventh level in thousands of years. It was too damn difficult! The big monster seemed to have discovered Yun chujiu as well. However, to it, Yun chujiu was like a human looking at a small ant. It was too lazy to kill her. Yun Chujiu was extremely glad that the big monster was lazy enough. Otherwise, she would really die. This guy did not dare to get too close to the monster. He hid in the cave from afar and tried to think of a way to kill the big monster. He definitely could not do it during the day. He could only look at the situation at night. As the sun set, night fell. At midnight, Yun Chujiu secretly poked her head out of the cave. As usual, the wind blades stopped. Under the moonlight, the figure of the big monster was exceptionally clear. Yun chujiu then realized that the wind blades did not stop completely. However, when the big monster was sleeping, the wind blades did not become so strong, it could not blow so far away, but there were still wind blades coming out of the big monster's nostrils, forming a defense in front of the big monster. Yun chujiu blinked her eyes. The wind blades came from the nostrils. In other words, there would definitely be no wind blades behind the big monster. It would be great if she could go behind it. However, the big monster's back was against a huge snow mountain. How could it go behind it? Yun Chujiu's eyes suddenly lit up. From that night onwards, Xiao Hei began its hard work of digging holes. In order to prevent being discovered by the big monster, Xiao Hei had to dig deep enough, moreover, it could only dig at night when the big monster fell asleep.
