

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1205

Yun chujiu looked baffled. "You Old Man, you are so unreasonable. Isn't it just a little dummy? Do you have to fight with me like this? And you even said that you are from the Yin family. You are just a little stingy!" "You, you know the answer! If it weren't for my natal puppet, I, I would have lost my soul!" The old man's remnant soul said angrily. "Ah, so that's how it is. I thought Uncle Fu Ao was playing with me! "In that case, I don't need that little dummy. Then I'll take this coffin away. Anyway, it doesn't matter where you sleep as a remnant soul. I think this coffin is not bad. When I go out to practice in the future, I can use it as a bed!" Yun Chujiu said with a smile. The corners of Fu Ao and the others' eyes twitched violently. This little girl's interests were indeed different from ordinary people. If you sleep in a coffin, won't you panic? When the remnant soul of the old man heard that Yun Chujiu was going to take the coffin away, it became even angrier. "Don't even think about it! This coffin is my shelter. You're not allowed to take it away!" "I'm afraid it's not just a shelter, right? There must be a big secret inside. Besides, do you think you have the right to ask me not to take it away? As long as I kill you, all these things are mine!" Yun Chujiu said very arrogantly, damn, the feeling of bullying others with power was really great! It was a pity that these remnant souls could not be used outside. Otherwise, I would have tortured those masked men to death long ago. There was no need to hide here and there. The old man's remnant soul kept struggling. However, he was now restrained by many remnant souls. There was no way for him to escape. He gritted his teeth and said, "I, I can teach you the secret art of puppets. Don't touch my things." Yun Chujiu was secretly happy. Very well, she had been waiting for this sentence. This guy sighed and said, "Old man, I am a very kind person." When Fu Ao and the others heard this sentence, they almost vomited! You can forget it! ! How many people and Beasts did you abduct with this sentence? ! No, you even abducted thousands of our remnant souls? ! You Are Kind! ? You are simply a little pervert with a black heart! Yun chujiu continued, "Although you can't remember what happened in the past, you hid here alone. I'm afraid that you had a story in the past as well, maybe even a deep hatred or something. But Can you take revenge by hiding here? Forget about revenge, I'm afraid that it won't be long before you don't remember anything! "You also saw that I have a lot of remnant souls around me. Why are they following me? "Because I have an ancient green jade porcelain bottle, and I am not afraid of being struck by lightning. Most importantly, I will definitely find the great void soul patching formation and their bodies. Why Don't you follow me? It is better than waiting here for death." The old man's remnant soul was stunned when he heard this! He did not expect Yun chujiu to make such a request. Although his mind was clear now, the frequency of his madness was increasing. However, he could not rely on his natal puppet to protect his remnant soul. Why don't.., follow her? Those remnant souls looked like they were from the ancient times. When they were alive, they were probably heroes of their generation. For them to choose this little girl, it meant that this little girl must be extraordinary. Perhaps he had waited for tens of thousands of years just to wait for her? Just as the old man's Remnant Soul was hesitating, he heard Yun chujiu say, "Forget it. It's not sweet to twist the melon. Since you don't want it, I don't want your puppet technique either. You can send me out."
