

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1219

That morning, the flying spirit tool arrived at the Temple of Immortals. The temple of Immortals was on a high mountain surrounded by clouds and mist. Exotic flowers and plants were everywhere, as if it was a fairyland. The ten-thousand-year-old heritage was indeed not to be underestimated. The identities of the four of them were naturally not worthy of the palace master's wife coming out personally to welcome them. Manager Luo brought the four of them directly to the courtyard where they could rest. Qin Mingzhu and the other two often came to attend banquets, so they were arranged to stay in the courtyard where they usually stayed. Yun chujiu did not know what it meant to be reserved, so she went in one by one to take a look. The furnishings in the house were very exquisite, one look and it was obvious that it was worth a lot. In her heart, she scolded the old witch who squandered her family dozens of times. After looking at the residence of Qin Mingzhu and the other two, manager Luo brought Yun Chujiu to her residence. No matter how Yun Chujiu looked at it, she felt that manager Luo had a secret in his heart. She did not even dare to look at her.. Manager Luo's heart was on the verge of breaking down. This little ancestor would definitely cause a ruckus in a while. My dear, you've really dug a hole for me! The two of them walked for a full hour before arriving at a remote small courtyard. When Yun Chujiu saw the small courtyard, she immediately understood why manager Luo was trembling in fear. It turned out that the old witch wanted to show her off! Manager Luo braced herself and took out the jade token to open the small courtyard. It was obvious that no one had lived there for a long time. The weeds grew taller than people. Manager Luo stuttered, "That, that ninth miss, the palace mistress said that you like silence. This, this place is more suitable for you." Bullsh * T! She was not a mouse who liked dark corners! Manager Luo saw Yun Chujiu's gloomy face and became even more nervous. This little pervert would not hit her directly, right? Yun chujiu did not get angry and said lightly, "Since aunt arranged for me to be here, I naturally have no objections. Get a few servants to come over and let them help me clean up." Manager Luo was very surprised that Yun chujiu was so calm. She could still make the decision to arrange a few servants, he quickly said, "Okay, okay. I'll immediately arrange for the servants to come and listen to your arrangements. Miss Jiu, I'll go see the Palace Master's wife first. If there's anything, just ask the servants to look for me." Manager Luo saw that Yun chujiu nodded and left as if she was flying away. She looked like she was running away in a panic. Yun chujiu curled her lips. wasn't she just scamming her for some spirit stones? Was there a need to be so afraid of her? Yun chujiu waited for a long while before four maids came over, chatting and laughing. Most of their spirit power was around the sixth or seventh level of the spirit sect. When they came to Yun Chujiu's side.., they gave a perfunctory bow. "Chun Hua, Xia he, Qiu Yue, and Dong Xue Greet Miss Jiu." Yun chujiu sneered in her heart. They didn't take her seriously at all. She didn't know whether it was their own idea or the old witch's instruction. "Well, let's start cleaning. I'll give you four hours,"Yun Chujiu said lightly. The four of them said they would start cleaning after that. However, the efficiency was very low. The four of them were obviously not working hard and were talking and laughing. After two hours, the weeds in the yard had not been completely removed, not to mention the inside of the house. Yun Chujiu was meditating and cultivating at the side. She only glanced at them occasionally and continued to cultivate without changing her expression. Soon, four hours had passed. Yun chujiu opened her eyes and saw that although the weeds in the yard had been removed, there were still grass roots exposed outside. The four of them were chatting and laughing, they had no intention of cleaning the house. Yun chujia stood up and said indifferently, "Have you finished cleaning up?"
