

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1236

Di Linhan listened to di beiming recount what had happened, he could not help but glare at the Lady of the palace hall: "Nonsense! Since you know that Dian Cui is restless, why don't you just deal with her! If you deal with her decisively, will there be anything that will happen in the future?" The Lady of the Palace Hall was like a little daughter-in-law who had been bullied: "Husband, I, this time, it was really my fault. I did not think that a little dian Cui would be able to cause such a big mess. You should quickly think of a way to save the little rascal." Di Linhan stared helplessly at the palace Lord's wife, then he sighed: "That forbidden area has been there ever since the temple of Immortals had set up our faction. The successive palace lords have always warned the next palace lord that he must not enter that forbidden area. Once he enters, he will definitely die!" "Father, what exactly is inside that place? Is it that scary?" Di beiming asked anxiously. Di Linhan let out a long sigh: "There is no demon beast locked in there, what is sealed in there is the Qi of Hun Dun." "Qi of Hun Dun? The Qi of Hun Dun before the heavens and earth were opened?" Di beiming asked in surprise. "That's right, once a cultivator enters, they will not be able to withstand the immense pressure inside, and naturally they will not be able to survive." Di Beiming's mind buzzed. He had not been particularly worried at first. After all, the little nine ghosts had many ideas. But this time, he was afraid that the odds were against him. Di beiming forced himself to calm down, he then asked: "Father, then why is the forbidden area suddenly closed and I can not enter?" "This, this is also the first time I have encountered such a situation. Logically speaking, it shouldn't be like this. Perhaps the little girl has had some fortuitous encounter?" Di Linhan guessed. The palace mistress hurriedly said from the side: "Right, right, the little lass is very clever. Who knows, she might really have had a fortuitous encounter!" Di Linhan glared at her: "Stop right there, it's all your fault!" The palace mistress shrank her neck, not daring to make a sound. "Father, is this Qi of Hun Dun related to our hall of Immortals?" Di beiming didn't know why, but he suddenly thought of this question. "This, this father doesn't know. It's just that ever since the lifelong Saint Hall came into existence, this forbidden ground has always existed. It's hard to say whether our ancestors of the Di clan were there to protect this Qi of Hun Dun, or to guard this Qi of Hun Dun. There's a certain fate in the dark. The Little Lass will definitely be fine. If it wasn't for the fact that there's something strange, the forbidden ground wouldn't have suddenly closed." Di Linhan consoled. He was also afraid that Di beiming would resent the palace lord's wife because of this. "Father, can I inform my master about this? Let's see if the old man has any way to save little jiu." Di Linhan was silent for a moment, and looked at the pleading faces of Di beiming and his wife. He gritted his teeth and said: "This... . Forget it! The old man of the Heaven Lake is also a mighty figure who lives in the hearts of the people. I believe that he will keep this a secret. You can ask." Di beiming immediately sent a voice transmission talisman to the old man of the Heaven Lake, and the old man of the heaven lake quickly replied: "The array formation that can seal off the Qi of Hun Dun, this old man is also powerless. However, since the array formation of the forbidden land was suddenly shut off, it must be because the little girl hasn't died yet. or it must be another fortuitous encounter. It's better to wait and see. "Moreover, the little girl isn't even afraid of the pressure of the heavenly lightning. Perhaps she can withstand the pressure of Hun Dun's Qi. Don't be too worried." When di beiming heard his master say this, his heart became even more worried. Although little nine had overcome countless difficulties, this time it was even more difficult than before. Moreover, he couldn't help at all. Could she endure it?
