

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1248

Yun chujiu curled her lips. "Lord Dean, look at your use of words. These were all given to me by my aunt and uncle, okay? They wished they could give me the entire hall of eternal life, but I rejected them. I am still very self-aware." The corners of Dean Huangfu's eyes twitched violently. You Are Really Shameless! Yun chujiu chatted with Dean Huangfu for a while more before heading back to her dormitory. This fellow was thinking about the life and death arena as he hopped around. Just now, Dean Huangfu had specially told her that any method could be used on the life and Death Arena, talismans, poisons, spirit beasts, formation discs, anything could be used. As the daughter of the Yin family head, not only did Yin Xinlian have many good things, she was also proficient in formations. It was likely that she would be very difficult to deal with when the time came. Yun chujiu calculated that there were less than ten days left before she and Yin Xinlian's life and Death Arena. She had to hurry up and cultivate and strive to break through once more. Even if she could not catch up to Yin Xinlian, it would be fine to narrow the gap a little. Moreover, although she had many good things, many of them could not be seen in the light. Otherwise, it might attract the covetous eyes of others. Therefore, she had to think of a foolproof plan. Two days later, Tianyuan Academy started its semester, and the Academy returned to its usual lively scene. Yun chujiu had been training hard during her spare time. Unfortunately, things did not go as she wished. She did not break through again until the day before the competition, and her spiritual power stopped at the eighth level of the Spirit sect. Yun Chujiu felt that things were not good. It was said that Yin Xinlian, that little b * TCH, had already broken through to the second level of the spirit Saint Realm. Although she had killed many demon beasts that were equivalent to spiritual venerables in the trial tower., but that was different. First of all, in the trial tower, she knew that she could not die, so she naturally acted without scruples. Second, no matter how smart those demon beasts were, they were still demon beasts. Yin Xinlian, that little b * TCH, was much smarter. Finally, in the trial tower, she could use all kinds of methods without scruples. On the life and Death Arena, she had a lot of scruples, yun chujiu shook her head. Damn it, if it really didn't work out, she would use the sudden rupture talisman that the gigolo gave her and fight until both sides were injured. Anyway, she had the guai Cao to cheat, so she would definitely be able to keep her life. The next afternoon, almost all the students who didn't have classes in Tianyuan Academy ran to Tianyuan Square, including Dean Huangfu and the others. This was because the status of both sides on the life and Death Arena was special. Although they couldn't help each other., but they still had to see the process clearly. When the time came, when the relatives of one of the parties came to verify, they could also explain the process clearly. The time was set at the beginning of the afternoon. Yin Xinlian arrived just after noon, while Yun Chujiu never showed up. When everyone recalled Yun Chujiu's performance in the previous two competitions, they weren't anxious. They guessed that Yun Chujiu was planning to come at the right time. As expected, when it was almost time, Yun Chujiu walked over under the escort of the Huang class students. She looked like she was leading a group of generals. She looked valiant and valiant. If they were to compete, Yun Chujiu would win! Yin Sulian snorted coldly and said, "She's just putting on a show to impress the public. My sister will definitely kill this B * Tch Today!" Immediately, Yin Sulian's lackeys echoed, "That's right! A second level spirit sect cultivator who wants to defeat a second level Holy Spirit Realm Senior Yin is simply wishful thinking. Yun Chujiu is dead for sure!" "She still thinks that she's so amazing after passing the trial tower.

HMPH, it's just because the weapon spirit went easy on her." "I guess that in less than an hour, Yun chujiu will be slapped to death by senior Yin." "An Hour? I think half an hour will be enough. hahaha!" ..
