

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1258

After the dry old man was stunned, he could not help but shout angrily, "You bastard! Since you've learned the talisman technique, why are you still saying that you haven't learned it? Are you trying to play with me? !" Yun chujiu spread her hands innocently, "I really haven't learned it. I was just looking at this thing for fun and drew it a few times. Who knew that this thing was so simple? I succeeded in drawing it today! "If I had known earlier, I would have drawn more. It's so convenient to attack people with this thing! "It's just that talisman seals are banned in many places. It's a pity." The dry old man stared at Yun Chujiu, wanting to see if what she said was true, yun chujiu had a magnanimous expression. "Master, I know that my heaven-defying talent may be a little discouraging to you, but there's nothing I can do. who asked me to be such a genius and such a pervert!" "HMPH! I don't believe it! You must be lying! I'll teach you how to draw the explosive talisman now. If you can still draw it, then even if what you said is true." "What do you mean by that? Every word I said is true. It's the truth." Yun Chujiu said rather smugly. The dry old man demonstrated the drawing method of the explosive talisman. Then, he handed the talisman brush to Yun Chujiu. Yun Chujiu drew a piece of the explosive talisman according to the old man's drawing. With a whoosh, the talisman paper burned up. It was obvious that she had failed. Yun chujiu laughed dryly. "It's inevitable for geniuses to fail. I was just practicing the first time. I will definitely succeed the second time." The old man did not mock her. He could see that it was really Yun Chujiu's first time drawing the explosive talisman. Because the technique was very unfamiliar, it was obvious that she was drawing according to her own pattern. Could it be that she was not lying, did she really not learn talisman before? At this time, Yun Chujiu had already started drawing the second time. It was obvious that she was much more proficient than the first time. Moreover, she did not look at the old man's talisman at all. She had actually memorized the complicated talisman pattern! The old man was so shocked that his eyes were wide open. Previously, he knew that Yun Chujiu had a photographic memory. However, the talisman was so tortuous and did not have any curves of memory points. How could she still have a photographic memory? It could only be described as a monster. Just as the old man was distracted, he heard Yun Chujiu clapping her hands and saying, "Master, I've completed it! What do you think?" The old man looked at the explosive talisman on the table and was so excited that he was trembling. Even his eyes were red! Oh God, I've been living on my last breath for so many years. Could it be that it was to take in this genius disciple? Perhaps with this little girl, what I thought was impossible can really be achieved.. Yun chujiu saw that the old man did not speak and thought that there was something wrong with her drawing. After looking carefully, there was no difference between her drawing and the old man's drawing? Alright, let's draw another one! Therefore, this guy picked up the talisman pen and drew another one. The spiritual power used in this one was even more uniform. After drawing it, she found that the finished explosive talisman was shining with a faint golden light, he couldn't help but giggle. "Master, Look, why did the talisman I drew mutate? It's actually shining. It looks very cool!" The dry old man was immersed in his own thoughts and was interrupted by Yun Chujiu's shout. He couldn't help but feel a little angry. "What nonsense are you talking about? ! What Shining..." The old man picked up the talisman on the table. His hands were trembling slightly and he was so excited that he could not say a word. Yun chujiu frowned. Could it be that the old man's old illness had not been cured and left behind sequelae? Why was he trembling all of a sudden?
