

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 127

Yun Chujiu and the others left the forest. As they stood on the stone steps and looked around blankly, a white light flashed in front of their eyes. They had already been transported to a square.

The ground of the square was paved with large pieces of bluestone slabs. There were some inconspicuous patterns on them, making them look extremely ancient and solemn.

There were already many people gathered in the square. Coincidentally, Bai Moyu and the others were standing next to Yun Chujiu and the others.

Yun Chushan saw that Yun Chujiu was still alive and was very disappointed. However, when she thought about how she would be an outer sect disciple in the future while Yun Chujiu and the others could only be low-level laborers, her heart immediately felt at ease.

Bai Morou and Bai Morou were naturally very happy. Yun Chujiu and the others were only laborers and their treatment in the future was far worse than theirs. They might even be able to enter the inner sect after the trial in a year's time! As for them? HMPH, just be servants for the rest of their lives!

No matter how much that elder Sun liked Yun chujiu, it was useless for Yun chujiu to not be able to cultivate! Sooner or later, elder Sun would give up on her! Moreover, this was still not the disciple recruitment ceremony, so there was no guarantee of what would happen!

The disciple in charge of the entrance test said a few words of courtesy, and then sent people to bring the outer sect disciples and servants to the corresponding areas to be settled.

The Linghua sect was situated on Mount Linghua, and the higher one went, the denser the spiritual energy became.

Mount Linghua had six peaks, and they were respectively the East Peak, West Peak, South Peak, North Peak, Middle Peak, and main peak. The odd-job areas on each peak were all below the mountainside, and the spiritual energy was the thinnest.

The disciple leading the team randomly assigned these new odd-job workers to their respective regions.

Even though it was random, there was a reason for it. Some odd-job workers with acquaintances or backgrounds were assigned to lighter positions, such as the Alchemy Division. Being an Alchemist's attendant was not only easy, but one could also learn some alchemy knowledge.

The herb planting department was also not bad. As long as the task was completed by the day, it would be fine. Usually, there was no one supervising it, so one could have a lot of time to go to the outer sect's cultivation hall to attend classes.

The servants in the miscellaneous department were also not bad. They were all running errands and temporary workers. They could both slack off and get to know some useful people.

Although the Spirit Beast Department was a little dirty, those who had spirit beasts were mostly inner sect disciples and elders. This was a good opportunity to reach the sky in one step, so it was also a place to fight over.

The most unpopular place, and also the place that everyone didn't want to go, was the big kitchen.

Not only was the big kitchen greasy, but it was also the most tiring. There was no time to cultivate at all. Moreover, in order to prevent the pollution of the spiritual energy, the big kitchen on every mountain peak was built under the ground. It was also the place where the spiritual energy was the thinnest.

Because the people in the big kitchen were basically rookies with no background, among the few departments of the handyman's office, the Big Kitchen was the most unpopular and the department that was always bullied.

The disciple in charge of the distribution department was called Qi Sheng. He glanced at Yun Chujiu and the others with his eyes and curled his lips. "The few of you, go to the big kitchen in the Middle Peak!"

Yun chujiu did not know the twists and turns inside. As soon as she heard that they were going to the big kitchen, her heart immediately bloomed with joy. The Big Kitchen was great. At the very least, she would not have to worry about the delicious food in the future. hahaha!

Yun Chusi and the others were also very happy. As long as they entered the Ling Hua sect, it would be fine. which department was different.

Some servants who knew the inside story cast pitying gazes at Yun Chujiu and the others. These seven people could be considered useless.

Yun chujiu was very shrewd. When she saw their gazes, her heart moved slightly. Could it be that the big kitchen was not a good place to go? HMPH! I, Yun Chujiu, will not believe it. Even if it is a bad place, once I, Yun Chujiu, go, it will be a top-notch good place to go! What's more, it's in the Middle Peak. It's simply too good!
