

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1277

Yun Chujiu returned to her dormitory. After activating the isolation array, she took out the nine-tailed Fox's Fox Skin. The huge fox skin covered the entire courtyard, but only a small part of it was opened. Most of it could not be opened yet, from this, one could see how huge the nine-tailed Fox was. Yun chujiu touched it and was very satisfied with the feeling in her hand. This thing was indeed much stronger than the old witch's carpet. She took out an immortal sword and spent a lot of effort to cut off a large piece. Then, she asked Mao Qiu to make her a full set of nine-tailed fox costumes. Mao Qiu loved to sew, so she happily agreed. Yun chujiu put away the rest of the fox skin and took out a piece of nine-tailed Fox's bone to examine. Yun Chujiu was holding a small section of the nine-tailed Fox's tail bone. It was as white as jade and looked like a piece of jade, the Bone of a divine beast was indeed extraordinary! Just as Yun Chujiu was mumbling to herself, the three-tailed Fox King of Lie Yan used his spiritual sense to say, "Master, becoming a nine-tailed fox has always been my dream. Can you let me see it?" Yun chujiu naturally would not disapprove and let lie Yan out. The three-tailed Fox King of Lie Yan was very excited when it saw the nine-tailed Fox's tail bone. It sniffed around with its nose. Yun chujiu saw that it was so interested, she said, "Xiao Hong, I'll give this piece of bone to you as a toy. Take it and play with it!" The three-tailed Fox King of Lie Yan was overjoyed. It felt that Xiao Hong's name had become much more pleasing to the ear. It kept the piece of bone into its storage space. In the following days, everything was peaceful. Yun chujiu did not dare to neglect it. That old B * Stard Yin Haoyu must be plotting something bigger. She had to speed up her cultivation. However, it was already the end of the semester, so Deputy Dean Yin didn't make any further moves. Yun chujiu couldn't help but be curious. What exactly was this old B * Stard planning? Turning back? Ptui! Only such a heartless person wouldn't get better. Only by reincarnating would there be a possibility of getting better. During this period of time, although Yun Chujiu's spiritual power couldn't level up again, this guy secretly learned the intermediate physical transformation technique from teacher Ji Sha. Although teacher Ji Sha was surprised that Yun Chujiu's actual spiritual power had already reached the level of a spirit saint, he did not ask further. He used a few days to pass the intermediate physical transformation technique to Yun Chujiu. The intermediate physical transformation technique was between the advanced physical transformation technique and the beginner physical transformation technique. The spiritual power that was materialized still did not have any intelligence. However, compared to the beginner physical transformation technique, which could materialize objects, the intermediate physical transformation technique could materialize animals, when attacking, it would be much stronger than the beginner level physical transformation technique. After Yun Chujiu learned the intermediate level physical transformation technique, she returned to her own courtyard and began to practice. With the foundation of the beginner level physical transformation technique, Yun chujiu quickly learned the intermediate level physical transformation technique. However, when she saw the object that she materialized.., she decided to use the beginner level physical transformation technique in the future. It was too f * cking embarrassing! Xiao Heiniao laughed and rolled on the ground. "Master, Haha, Master, Haha, you actually materialized. Materialized into a pig, and it's a little piglet. Oh My God, this is so funny!" "Master, could it be that this thing is different for different people?" Xiao Heiniao was domineering, so he had an ice dragon. The Black Chicken's head would fiddle with the skull for no reason, so his was a spiritual skull. You, on the other hand, liked to eat it, so materialized into a pig. Haha, Haha!" Xiao Heiniaio felt that this joke was enough for him to laugh at for a lifetime!
