

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1288

The raging fire lion instantly made a brilliant decision. Run! F * ck, if he couldn't afford to provoke it, he could hide. He had to run for his life first! "Hey! Kitten, Don't run yet. I don't want to kill you. Stop right there. I'll make a deal with you. I guarantee that you'll be tempted." Yun chujiu stretched her neck and shouted. The Raging Fire Lion felt that he could still outrun the two raging bulls, so he stopped and prepared to hear what Yun Chujiu had to say. "Kitten, you, Niu Da, and Niu er will escort me to the entrance of the eighth floor. After the deed is done, I'll give you a few high-quality healing pills. How about it? Isn't this a good deal?" The Raging Fire Lion was a little tempted when it heard this, but it was still a little hesitant. Being controlled by a human was really a little embarrassing. Then, it heard Yun chujiu continue, "Kitten, when I do things, I usually have to be polite before I act. What if you agree? We're both battle partners, so I naturally won't treat you unfairly. "However, if you don't agree, HMPH, where do you think you can run to? "Even if you hide in your nest, I will still blow your nest into powder. If you don't believe me, Let's try." The Raging Fire Lion was so angry that it was twitching. How was this a business deal? This was a forced sale! Did It dare to not agree? The two bulls knew its nest. If it didn't agree, it would definitely be blown to pieces! After weighing the pros and cons, the raging fire lion reluctantly established a spiritual connection with Yun Chujiu. Yun Chujiu also established a temporary contract with it. "Kitten, your fur is bigger than Niu Er's and Niu Er's. I'd better sit on your back! Let's go, continue to move forward!" Yun chujiu sat on the raging fire lion's back and waved the rolling pin, looking very majestic! Tears flowed down the raging fire lion's face. It was a level 26 demonic beast, yet it was being ridden by a little girl. Furthermore, it was being called a kitten. There was nowhere to put its lion face! The two black-horned raging fire lions felt much more at ease. Initially, they felt that they could not raise their heads in front of the raging fire lion. However, when they saw the sullen look on the raging fire lion's face, they instantly felt extremely comfortable. They deserved it! How did you laugh at US before? Did you think that we would be willing to be ordered around by a little girl for no reason? Did you think that we were stupid? HMPH! If it was not because we could not win, did you think that we would be willing? Yun chujiu was in a good mood and was quite generous. She threw the corpses of some demonic beasts in her storage ring to the three of them. Although the spiritual power of the demonic beasts in Qing Xuan continent was low, it was better than nothing, especially when she slapped them and gave them a sweet date, this sweet date was especially sweet. The three of them were so touched that they almost cried. Sob, the little devil actually gave them food. It really touched the beasts. For the rest of the journey, Yun Chujiu accepted the obedient demonic beasts. When she encountered stubborn ones, she directly commanded Niu Da and the others to kill them, and then the meat of the demonic beasts was distributed to Niu Da and the others. The three little blackbirds were completely impressed. Xiao Heiniao, there was no one else who could be their black-hearted master! Other than dealing with the cave raging flame tiger by themselves, the rest of the demonic beasts were completely tricked by lie Yan. A day later, Yun Chujiu led the demonic beast thugs to the entrance of the eighth level. Yun chujiu distributed the hemostasis pills to the demonic beasts, then, she waved goodbye to them with a smile. "If it wasn't for the fact that you guys couldn't enter the eighth level, I would definitely bring you guys to the eighth level as well. What a pity! Train hard, I will miss you guys!" Seeing Yun chujiu disappear at the entrance, the demonic beasts couldn't help but shed two teardrops sadly.

They had to admit that this day was unforgettable for them. It turned out that ganging up to bully the beasts was so satisfying!
