

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1300

"Alright, Little Fairy, then I'll make some money. I should be able to make 100 million high-grade spirit stones! Little Fairy, this is my old capital. You Can't just take my spirit stones and not admit to it! "How about this, before I give you the Spirit Stones, you have to swear in your heart that you can't tell anyone about the secret of the tenth level. Only then will I dare to give you the spirit stones without worry." Yun chujiu blinked her eyes and said, "Sure! I have an open heart, so why would I be afraid of swearing on my Inner Demon Oath? Listen carefully! "Heaven above, if little radish gives me yun chujiu 100 million high-grade spirit stones, I will keep the secret of the tenth level of the nine serenities crypt. If I tell anyone about it, I will let the heavenly lightning strike me to death. I will use all my strength to strike me down for 10 hours! "Little radish, this should be fine, right? The inner demon oath that I swore is enough, right?" Qi ling nodded. This kind of heart demon oath was very poisonous. If the lightning struck for 10 hours, not to mention this little girl, even a mountain could be flattened! Thus, Qi Ling transferred the spirit stone to Yun Chujiu. Little did he know that Xiao Hei and lie Yan almost suffered internal injuries from holding in their breath. Damn it, you silly radish, you've been deceived again! Our black-hearted master is eager for the Lightning to strike her. It's better not to make this oath! Yun chujiu was almost done with her actions. She then said with great kindness, "Little radish, you can send us out now. I will come to see you often in the future. Don't miss me too much!" Qi Ling squeezed out a smile and sent Yun Chujiu to the first level of the cave. Then, he couldn't wait to send everyone out. Damn it! Hurry up and get lost! I swear that I never, never, never want to see you again! You Pervert! After everyone was ejected out of the nine serenities crypt, they were all a little dumbfounded. wasn't there still one more day? Did the nine serenities crypt just close? Why did it close early? Yun chujiu naturally wouldn't take the initiative to raise her hand and say that it was me, it was me, it was my fault! This fellow kept a low profile as he hid in the crowd, not making a sound. Deputy Dean Xiao had the teachers from each class count the number of people. After they finished counting, they discovered that dozens of people had gone missing. They must have been bitten to death by the demonic beasts in the cave. However, there would definitely be casualties in this trial. After they finished counting the names.., the group returned to the Tian Yuan Academy in an imposing manner. At this moment, deputy Dean Yin had obtained Yin Sulian's voice transmission talisman. Yun Chujiu was actually still alive! Deputy Dean Yin tried to send the voice transmission talisman to the three leaders of the secret guards, but it was impossible to send it out. At this time, the nine serenities crypt had already closed, which could only mean one thing — they were dead! Deputy Dean Yin was so angry that he smashed the desk into pieces. Trash! Trash! All of them were trash! Three spiritual venerables couldn't even kill a little girl at the fifth layer of the spirit sect, they were simply trash! Deputy Dean Yin didn't know what else to curse other than trash! After venting his anger, he sat down on the chair dejectedly. It was impossible for Yun Chujiu to kill three of his subordinates by herself, unless the secret guards of the temple of Immortals used the same method to sneak into the nine Nether crypt, that was why his people were killed. It had to be the case. He did not expect that the temple of Immortals would take this yun chujiu so seriously. They actually sent a special secret guard to protect her at all times. How detestable! The temple of Immortals had extorted one-tenth of the Yin clan's share of spirit stones the last time, and they had also suppressed the Yin clan many times. It was getting more and more outrageous. If it was possible, they really wanted to raze the temple of Immortals to the ground! It was never too late for a gentleman to take revenge. Yun Chujiu and the Temple of Immortals, he would not let any of them off!
