

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1313

Seeing the palace mistress nod, Yun chujiu said, "Then let's first find out where those people are locked up, and then think of a way to save them." The palace mistress had already treated Yun chujiu as her backbone, so she naturally had no objections. The two of them activated the concealment talisman and carefully left the bedroom. The palace mistress was a fourth level spiritual venerable, and with the concealment talisman, it was still very easy for her to avoid the patrolling guards. She found that there was actually not a single trace of spiritual power fluctuation on Yun Chujiu's body, and could not help but feel strange, how did the little rascal hide the spiritual energy fluctuations on his body? The palace master's wife was full of questions, but now was not the time to answer them. If she could really escape this disaster, then she would ask her. Because the palace master's wife was at the spiritual venerable realm, she could see Yun Chujiu, but Yun chujiu could not see the palace master's wife. Therefore, Yun Chujiu pointed in a direction and signaled the palace master's wife to follow her. The two of them came to the canteen one after the other. The palace master's wife frowned. What time was it now? This little rascal still came to the canteen? Could it be that this little rascal wanted to be a glutton? Although it was already midnight, the canteen was still brightly lit. Yun chujiu was most familiar with the canteen. This fellow brought the palace master's wife from a hidden corner and directly entered the canteen's back kitchen, then, he hid his body in the kitchen and looked outside. There were seven or eight people sitting around the dining hall. They were all spiritual venerables and were drinking and talking loudly. "TSK TSK, as expected, what I hear is false and what I see is true. They have been talking about how the Temple of Immortals is, but I don't think it's much. Our protectors used a little trick to occupy the temple of Immortals. "At this speed, in less than a year, the entire Tian Yuan continent will belong to the Netherworld Palace!" "You can't say that. After all, Di Linhan and di beiming are not around. Moreover, if we did not have the Netherworld Elixir, things would not have gone so smoothly. The Netherworld Elixir was an ancient poison formula that Vice Palace Master Liu had obtained with great difficulty. Even a person with great medical skills would not be able to discover it. Otherwise, do you think that the people from the temple of Immortals are all good-for-nothings who have been poisoned?" "No matter what, the Temple of Immortals is already ours. Even if di Linhan and di beiming come back, we still have the hostages in our hands. They will be wary of taking action, and when the time comes, we will still be the ones to win." "Not only is the temple of Immortals Grand and magnificent, but each of those chicks is more dainty than the last. It's a pity that dharma protector Tao did not allow them to move, or else they would really want to be happy." "HMPH!" Only the governor was allowed to set the fire and the commoners were not allowed to light the lanterns. Qi Yu entered the palace of the palace master's wife and chased us all out. He even said that he wanted to interrogate the temple of Immortals's seal. With his character, he didn't even need to ask to know what he was going to do! "He's really daring and lecherous. The palace master's wife is the most important hostage, yet he dares to lay his hands on her. Dharma Protector Tao really has a good uncle!" "Damn it! I'm so tired that I won't even give him any benefits. His uncle actually dares to lay a hand on the wife of the palace master. What a grievance!" "That's right! Brothers, let's go to the place where the prisoners are being held and get a few pretty girls. If Dharma Protector Tao punishes us, we'll give Qi Yu Up!" "Right! Let's do it! Damn it, let's Go!" .. The few of them talked as they walked out drunkenly. Yun chujiu gestured at the back with her finger, indicating for the palace mistress to follow her. The few of them put their arms around each other's shoulders and said lewd words. The palace mistress was so angry that her face turned green. However, when she saw Yun chujia make a gesture to silence her, she could only endure it. The two of them followed the person in front for about fifteen minutes and came to a row of houses. This was the place where the servants usually lived. They did not expect the nether world hall to hold them here.
