

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1314

Yun Chujiu and the palace master's wife hid their bodies behind a rock and stuck their heads out to look. The two guards stopped them. "This is the place where the prisoners are being held. Retreat quickly!" "TSK TSK, Hall Master Qiu, Hall Master Pi, Qi Yu is currently having sex with the palace master's wife, yet the two of you are sent here to guard the door. It's really a different fate for the same officials!" The two guards' expressions were very unsightly, but one of them still said, "We don't care what others do. Our duty is to guard these prisoners. You guys quickly retreat, or else the hall rules will punish you." Those few people drank quite a lot of wine, immediately, they started cursing, "What are you pretending for? We are not your subordinates. Moreover, those prisoners will die sooner or later. What's wrong with US playing around? Get out of the way! We have to go in!" "That's right! Don't you want to have some fun? Let's go in together!" .. Yun chujiu rolled her eyes and gestured for the palace mistress to turn her ear over. Then, she said in a low voice, "I'll go to the canteen and start a fire. You Go to the back of these rooms and act according to the situation." The palace mistress nodded and the two of them split up. Yun chujiu carefully avoided the patrolling guards. Very soon, she reached the canteen and pushed down the vegetable oil tank in the kitchen. Then, she threw the lighter up! Not long after, the canteen was ablaze. Such a big commotion naturally caused a wave of panic. Many people ran over to put out the fire while Yun Chujiu once again returned to the front of the courtyard where the temple of Immortals were imprisoned. The few people who were drunk were so scared that they were running to the canteen in a hurry. They thought that the fire in the furnace had not been extinguished when they were cooking. The two guards also kept looking in the direction of the canteen. Seeing this, Yun Chujiu felt relieved and quietly went around to the back of the courtyard. There were no guards at the back of the courtyard. They had probably been taken care of by the Palace Master's wife. Yun Chujiu jumped over the wall and jumped in. A window was open. Yun chujiu looked through the window and saw that there were indeed many people locked inside. Some of them were covered in dried blood. They must have been injured during the fight, however, most of the people locked inside were servants of the temple of Immortals and some guards. Those secret guards with high spiritual power were not locked here. No wonder the guards here were so weak. It turned out that they did not take them seriously. Yun chujiu frowned. Saving these people actually did not have much of an effect, and it would also be restricted. However, she could not just stand by and watch them die, so she did not stop the palace master's wife from helping them remove the ropes and recover their spiritual power. Yun chujiu also jumped in through the window, motioning for the palace mistress to keep everyone quiet. Only then did she reveal her figure and asked in a low voice, "Do you know where the secret guards are locked up?" One of the guards said, "Miss Jiu, I seem to have heard them mention that those people in the warehouse are all ruthless characters, and they must be kept under strict supervision. I think they must have locked the secret guards up there." Yun chujiu nodded and then said to the palace master's wife, "Aunty, I'm not too sure about the exact location of the storehouse. You come with me." Then.., she said to the people in the room, "You guys stay here quietly for the time being. If you are discovered, take the initiative to kill the two guards and then guard this courtyard until we come back. Aunt, get the corpses of the guards of the Netherworld Palace out. Get a few people to change into their clothes and stand guard at the back. We can fool around for a while."
