

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1316

The four guards looked at each other. It turned out to be a silly and playful little girl. Didn't they send people to search the spirit fruit forest previously? Why didn't they find anyone? They were too careless! Fortunately, it was a little girl who was ignorant of worldly affairs. They could just capture her. "Little girl, come here. I want to talk to you about something." One of the guards waved at Yun Chujiu. Yun chujiu held her stomach and said, "I'm hungry in the middle of the night. Let's talk about it tomorrow. I have to go back and eat something!" The guard saw that Yun Chujiu was about to leave and quickly said, "I have food here. Come here and I'll give it to you." Yun chujiu stopped in her tracks. "Really? Brother Guard, you're such a good person!" After saying that, Yun chujiu hopped towards the direction of the guard. The guard was delighted. This little girl was really easy to fool. She was about to be fooled! Unexpectedly, he stopped after a few steps. "No, my aunt taught me that men and women should not be intimate. Throw the food to me. I Can't be too close to you." The corner of the Guard's eyes twitched, but his heart moved. He took out a few steamed buns with Netherworld powder and threw them to Yun chujiu. "Little girl, I only have a few steamed buns here. You can make do with them. They are still warm." Yun chujiu took the oil paper bag and saw the steamed buns inside. She beamed with joy and said while eating, "Thank you, Big Brother! By the way, I heard that some guards in your front hall like men. Is that true?" The corners of the four guards' mouths twitched slightly. Then, the guard who gave Yun chujiu the steamed buns said vaguely, "Yes, it's true." "I see that your big brothers are handsome. An Feng didn't touch them, did he?" "He is one of your leaders. I heard that he likes people like you the most. First, he uses spirit stones to please people. If you don't comply, he will use force to coerce you. You haven't been killed by him, have you?" Yun chujiu blinked her eyes and asked curiously. The four guards suddenly felt their butts tighten, and their heads shook like rattle-drums. "No! No! It's nothing!" Yun chujiu let out a long breath, "That's good, that's good! I see that the four big brothers are all very kind-hearted. It would be such a pity if they were ruined by an Feng." The corners of the four guards' eyes twitched violently. So the temple of immortals was like this temple of Immortals. We have really broadened our horizons. When we have time, we can go in and see which pervert is called an Feng, and we can broaden our horizons as well. Hidden behind the huge rock, the palace master's wife's heart was so complicated that it could not be described with words. If she had heard Yun chujiu say such immoral words in the past, she would definitely have scolded her. But at this moment.., hearing the little girl spouting nonsense, she actually felt a trace of pride in her heart. Damn it, I must have been too stimulated, so I went crazy. When the guard saw that Yun Chujiu had already finished eating three buns, she did not look drowsy at all. Instead, she looked even more energetic. The guard could not help but feel puzzled. These three buns had increased the dosage of the medicine. Logically speaking, this little girl should have been drowsy a long time ago. Why didn't she have any reaction at all? "Big Brother Guard, the taste of your buns is really not bad. It's just that three of them are a little too little. Do you have any more? If not, I'll leave. I'll look for you guys to play with tomorrow!" Yun Chujiu said with a smile. That Guard lost his patience and suddenly leaped forward, wanting to capture Yun chujiu. The palace master's wife's heart was in her throat. Although she had seen Yun chujiu kill that Qi Yu previously, that was because Qi Yu had not been on guard.., would the little rascal be able to do it this time?
