

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1317

Yun chujiu suddenly turned her body to the side and dodged the Guard's attack, she giggled and said, "Big Brother Guard, are you trying to spar with me? I just finished eating, so I can stretch my limbs. However, we are just sparring, you can't Hurt Me!" That guard did not expect Yun chujiu to actually dodge his attack, and he was slightly surprised. This little girl's movement technique was very fast, but she was a fool. Should I spar with you? HMPH, I can catch you in less than five moves. When the guard heard that Yun Chujiu was a guest, he thought that since she was a guest of the Temple of Immortals, she might be a young lady from some sect or clan. After catching her, she might be useful, so he wanted to catch her alive, therefore, he did not use his spiritual power to attack, but used his fists and legs to fight with Yun Chujiu. Unexpectedly, Yun Chujiu's movement technique was extremely fast, like a slippery little loach. After twenty moves, that guard did not even touch the corner of Yun Chujiu's clothes. The three guards behind him started to jeer. "Li Bei, did you not eat dinner? How come you can't even beat a little girl at the fifth level of the spirit sect? Haha!" That guard named Li bei could not keep his face straight anymore. He attacked Yun chujiu with his spiritual power, and a wolf materialized from spiritual power pounced on Yun Chujiu! "Damn it! Brother Guard, are you going to kill me? Be careful, I'll tell my aunt to punish you!" Yun chujiu shouted as she dodged. "Stupid girl! To tell you the truth, the Temple of Immortals is now in the hands of the Netherworld Palace. You'd better surrender obediently so that you won't suffer any physical pain. Otherwise, I'll kill you directly." The guard had been unable to capture Yun chujiu for such a long time, he was already angry from embarrassment. Yun Chujiu's face revealed a huge shock, then, she smiled and said, "Big Brother Guard, are you joking with me? How could the temple of Immortals be conquered by some Bullsh * t Netherworld Palace? My aunt is very powerful! She is incomparably wise and has superb spiritual power. It's impossible!" The face of the palace master's wife, who was hiding behind the rock, alternated between red and white. She was embarrassed and angry. This little rascal really made people love and hate him! The guard sneered again and again. "Humph! The Palace of Immortals is just so-so. Little Girl, I'm not joking with you! I'll give you one last chance. If you don't surrender, I won't hold back." "You're really too much!" "My aunt and uncle are your masters. How can you slander the Palace of Immortals Like This?" "I'll Teach You a lesson on behalf of my aunt!" The reason why Yun Chujiu kept joking was to give Xiao Hei a cover and buy time. Seeing that Yun Chujiu was still unwilling to give in, the guard launched another spiritual power attack. After Yun chujiu dodged it, she threw several small purple needles at him. When the guard saw the small purple needles that Yun Chujiu threw at him, he dodged to the side and laughed contemptuously. "Little girl, your spiritual power materialized into needles? Haha, what a waste!" The three guards behind him also laughed out loud. Where did this little waste come from? It actually materialized into a needle? A needle could even have offensive power? Yun chujiu giggled. "Big Brother Guard, don't think that my needle is small. It's very powerful. Do you dare to try catching it with your hands? I'll stab you to death!" The guard curled his lips. "Darn girl, do you think that everyone is as useless as you? I let you materialize a broken needle and stab it casually. It Can't hurt me at all."
