

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1318

Yun chujiu puffed her cheeks and said angrily, "Big Brother Guard, this is what you said! If you have the ability, then don't hide!" After saying that, Yun chujiu shot several small purple needles at the man. The guard curled his lips and waved his hands up and down, catching all the small purple needles in his hands, then, he said arrogantly, "Stupid girl, did you see that? With your spiritual power materialization, you are so weak..." The Man's voice was covered by a few explosions. The man's arm was instantly blown away. Before he could cry out in pain, a few more purple needles shot into the man's face. After a few explosions, the man died on the spot. Yun chujiu covered her mouth. "Oh my God, am I just playing with you? Didn't you say that my needles can't Hurt You? How did you die? It's So Strange." The three guards finally understood that this little girl had been pretending to be crazy. Suddenly, one of them pounced on Yun Chujiu. "Stupid girl! So You've been playing with us! You're courting death!" As the man spoke, he shot a spiritual attack at Yun Chujiu. His spiritual attack was an eagle. Yun Chujiu did not Dodge and rushed up to the man's attack. The palace master's wife almost cried out. Had the Little Girl Gone Mad? ! The guard was also shocked. Could it be that this little girl was really a fool? was she not faking it? Otherwise, why would she not Dodge and even take the initiative to approach? Unexpectedly, just as Yun chujiu approached the spiritual energy materialized eagle, she suddenly jumped up. The eagle pecked at Yun Chujiu, but Yun Chujiu's body flashed with several rays of light to block its attack. Almost at the same time., yun Chujiu threw a stack of talismans at the man! As the man was attracted by Yun Chujiu's suicide, his reaction was a little slow. He dodged most of the talismans, but he was still hit by a few talismans. After a few loud explosions, the man was blown into a bloody mess on the ground. Yun Chujiu threw another supreme-grade explosive talisman at him. After the loud explosion, the man could not be more dead. Both the remaining two guards and the palace master's wife were shocked! In less than an hour, a little girl at the fifth level of the Spirit sect had killed two masters at the second level of the Spirit Paragon realm. How was this possible? Although both of them were opportunistic, this was too unbelievable. Moreover, where did she get so many talismans? There were thirty to forty talismans thrown just now. Because of the huge commotion caused by the explosive talismans, three of the four guards at the back of the courtyard ran over to check. When the palace master's wife saw Yun Chujiu's hand gesture behind her back, although she was very worried about Yun Chujiu's safety, she still followed the plan and carefully went around to the back of the warehouse. At this moment, Yun Chujiu was surrounded by five guards in the middle. "Stinky girl, I didn't expect you to have some skills. You actually killed the two of us. However, no matter how strange you are, you will die here today!" Yun chujiu shrugged her shoulders. "Are you guys planning to gang up on Me? Five Spirit Paragons ganging up on me, a fifth level spirit sect trash?" One of them sneered. "Stinky girl, it's useless to goad me. Brothers, go and kill this stinky girl!" The spiritual attacks of the five people shot toward Yun Chujiu. Yun Chujiu's body shimmered with light. The defensive spiritual weapons that she had obtained from the Qi Ling of the nine serenities crypt could be considered useful. Even so., yun chujiu felt that she could not hold on for too long. She could only hope that the palace master's wife and Xiao Hei could save the secret guards as soon as possible.
