

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1326

Time passed quickly, and Yun Chujiu still couldn't think of any good ideas. However, this fellow wasn't idle either. With a few people surrounding her back to back, she kept drawing super-grade explosive talismans inside. The palace master's wife felt that there was something wrong with her eyes. She closed, opened, and closed them again. After repeating it a few times, she finally believed that what she was seeing wasn't an illusion. The little rascal could really draw a burst talisman just by drawing, and it was even a super grade one! The palace master's wife recalled that she used to call Yun chujiu a little trash, and her face burned with anger. If such a little girl was a trash, then everyone would probably be trash! Seeing that 10 hours were about to pass, Yun Chujiu asked someone to distribute the talisman that she had drawn. She gritted her teeth. If she really could not do it, then she could only do it! The palace mistress called Yun Chujiu to the side and after opening the isolation array, she said in a low voice, "Little Jiu girl, this is the key to the Treasury of the Temple of Immortals. Keep it well. If anything happens to me, you can keep this key." Yun chujiu took the key with a smile. "Aunt, I was worried that you would have a horse with a short stirrup. Now that I have the key, I'm not worried anymore." The palace master's wife was so angry that she almost vomited blood. "Little scoundrel! I only asked you to keep it for the time being. You have to return it to me when you're Done!" "Aunty, you have to be able to survive. Otherwise, HMPH, I'll just take all these good things for myself. It feels great just thinking about it!" The palace master's wife Glared at her. Naturally, she understood that the little girl wanted to stimulate her fighting spirit and did not want her to die. Right at this moment, a guard from the Hall of the Netherworld ran over in a panic. "Dharma Protector Tao! Di beiming is leading his men in the front hall to attack our eight Gates Golden Lock Formation." Dharma protector TAO's expression changed. "What? ! Why did he come back all of a sudden? Immediately send someone to guard the formation's core! Leave half of your men behind to deal with these people. The rest of you, follow me to the front hall." Yun Chujiu's heart was filled with joy. It would be easy if the gigolo came. Xiao Hei was about to succeed. No matter what, they could not let the reinforcements go. They had to delay them. Hence, yun chujiu shouted loudly, "Pui! You guys are still bragging about how powerful your turtle eight formation is. I didn't expect that you guys would be scared out of your wits the moment my brother beiming came. How embarrassing! "In my opinion, the Netherworld Palace belongs to the bastards. All you know is to hide in a turtle shell. You're all useless! "Everyone, protect my aunt well. Don't let them take her away. If my aunt is taken as a hostage, that would be terrible!" The people from the temple of Immortals were on the verge of tears. Miss Jiu, could it be that you have lost your mind? You are purely giving them a reminder! However, the palace master's wife knew Yun Chujiu's intentions. She was wise in doing so. If the formation's core could not be destroyed, even if bei Ming attacked from the outside for three days, he might not be able to break in. Ren Zhiyuan had long hated Yun Chujiu to death, thus, he said to dharma protector tao, "Dharma Protector Tao, since the Eight Gates Golden Lock Formation is unbreakable, why don't we take down these people first? With the palace master's wife as a hostage, wouldn't it be easy to deal with di Beiming?" Dharma Protector Tao felt that what he said made sense. The most important thing was to take down the palace master's wife first. Thus, he said, "Go! The others'lives don't matter. Leave the palace master's wife alive." Hearing that, the people of the Netherworld Palace rushed towards the training field. They only heard yun chujiu shouting, "Blow up these bastards!” Following Yun Chujiu’s words, the people of the longevity palace threw the talismans in their hands at the people of the Netherworld Palace who were rushing over. Although the people of the nether world palace had quite a high level of spiritual power, they were still unable to withstand the concentrated attacks of the talismans and were temporarily stopped from attacking.
