

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1332

The three of them chatted for a while more before Yun Chujiu asked, "Prince Charming, how did you find out that something was wrong? Logically speaking, you shouldn't have come back so quickly."

"After I arrived at the Spirit Stone Mine, I felt that something was amiss. Moreover, I brought out all the elites. If something really went wrong, it would be bad. The more I thought about it, the more I felt that something was amiss. Hence, I took care of the matters there and rushed back." Di Beiming was extremely glad that he had made this decision, otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.

The palace master's wife sighed. "Actually, this matter was completely my negligence. If we were to strictly investigate, we wouldn't have allowed those people to sneak in. We wouldn't have allowed them to poison the food and water."

"Oh right, Prince Charming, have you found that Netherworld Elixir? Give me some. I'll study how this thing is refined. This thing is really useful to trick people!" Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

The palace master's wife and Di Beiming's faces stiffened. Little Jiu's thoughts were indeed different from those of ordinary people.

After two days, Di Linhan who had received the news had rushed back in a hurry. He was naturally terrified and his attitude towards Yun Chujiu had become much friendlier.

After this incident, Yun Chujiu had fully demonstrated to them that not only could she protect herself, but she could also protect others! HMPH!

After the two great gods had settled the matter, Yun Chujiu's days in the temple of Immortals were extremely comfortable. There was food to eat, play, and take. It was simply extremely comfortable.

However, this fellow was a little unhappy. Ever since the last breakthrough, it had been several months since she had broken through. The spiritual energy in her body had long been saturated. If she could not break through, it was probably due to the lack of opportunities.

Very quickly, it was once again the day of the opening of the Tian Yuan Academy. Yun chujiu had taken away quite a number of good things from the Hall of Immortals.

However, this fellow knew how to cause trouble. He gave the palace mistress a large piece of the nine-tailed Fox's fur and also gave di Linhan an ancient profound iron chain. The two of them were naturally very satisfied and the more they looked at the little lass, the more they found her pleasing to the eye.

"Little Nine Lass, when you return to the Tian Yuan Academy, you must cultivate well and enter the top 100 of the prodigy roll as soon as possible. Do You Hear Me?"The palace mistress used to be annoyed with Yun Chujiu but now, she was actually a little reluctant to part with her, she felt that it was not bad to marry this little scoundrel in as soon as possible. At least the longevity hall would be more lively.

"Aunt, don't worry. I will strive to graduate in three years and then come back to help you look after the Treasury!"Yun Chujiu's eyes were practically glowing when she thought of the Longevity Hall's treasury.

“You little scoundrel. You’d better scam quickly!”The mistress of the temple master felt that she couldn’t be too nice to this guy, or else she would definitely kick him in the face.

Yun chujiu boarded the flying spirit tool and returned to the Tianyuan Academy under the ‘reluctant’of everyone.

Yun chujiu first met Feng Ming and the other two, then went to see Dean Huangfu. She giggled and gave him gifts. She had to maintain this relationship, or else, cough, cough, there would be no place to be struck by lightning.

The dry old man was still in closed-door cultivation. She didn’t know how the puppet research was going.

The first-year freshmen’s entrance examination had already ended, and another batch of new students had entered Tianyuan Academy. Yun chujiu couldn’t help but sigh. Time passed really quickly. A year had passed just like that.

Two days later, Tianyuan Academy officially began.

On the first day of class, teacher Ji sha said before class, “A new student has arrived in our Huang class. You guys should get to know each other.”

As teacher Ji Sha spoke, a man in his twenties walked in. As the man entered, the entire classroom seemed to brighten up.
