

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 134

The man on the ground almost fainted from anger. He wiped his face with his hand. "You stinky girl! I'll make sure you're well acquainted with the rules here!"

The man got up and reached out his hand to hit Yun Chujiu as Elder Huang reached out and grabbed the man's arm. "Manager Ding! This is just an accident. If you don't let her feed her spiritual pet, then just don't allow it! Yun Chujiu, don't feed your spiritual pet with spiritual food in the future, do you hear me?"

Elder Huang winked at Yun Chujiu. Yun Chujiu understood and said, "Yes! I know I'm wrong! I won't do this in the future!"

Manager Ding glared at Yun Chujiu viciously. "Hmph! I'll let you off this time on account of Elder Huang. Don't offend me in the future, or I won't let you off!"

Manager Ding kicked the table where Yun Chujiu and the others were eating and left.

Mei Li was panting heavily and was about to chase after them when Hou Tian also stood up angrily! Although Bei Yuan did not do anything, there was anger in his eyes! The rest of them also showed dissatisfaction and resentment.

Old Man Huang sighed. "Forget it! Forget it! We can't afford to offend him! Let's eat! Little girl, try to avoid him in the future. Don't you have a storage bag? Put more spiritual food in the storage bag and feed this little thing when we return to the dormitory."

Yun Chujiu nodded. She wondered what kind of background that bullsh*t Manager Ding had that made the people at the kitchen so afraid? She would ask again after some time. They were not familiar with each other then so they might not be willing to tell her.

Just after breakfast, someone shouted arrogantly from outside, “Yun Chusi, Yun Chuwu, Yun Chujiu... Come out! On the order of our Law Enforcement Agency’s Elder Xiao, we will take you to be interrogated!”

“Little girl, what’s going on?” Elder Huang was shocked. How did they provoke West Peak’s Law Enforcement Agency after only being there for a day?!

Yun Chujiu pursed her lips. “Elder Huang, I didn’t want to mention this at first. Since they’re here, then... Well, let’s talk outside.”

Everyone in the big kitchen followed Yun Chujiu and the others out. Yun Chujiu blinked her eyes and picked up a large copper basin and a spoon to hold the dishes.

Although everyone was baffled, no one said anything.

“Hmph! Yun Chujiu, you dare to beat up law enforcement disciples. We’re under Elder Xiao’s orders to bring you in to interrogate!” The one who spoke was Liu Qingzhen. He looked at Yun Chujiu viciously. ‘Darn Girl, as long as you are expelled from the Spirit Radiance Sect, it would be the start of your doom.’

Elder Huang smiled apologetically. “Junior Brother, is there some misunderstanding? Yun Chujiu and the others just reported to duty at our big kitchen last night. How could they beat up law enforcement disciples?”

“Get out of my way you old bastard! You’re just a handyman and have no right to speak!” Liu Qingzhen pushed Elder Huang away. Elder Huang was caught off guard and almost fell.

Yun Chujiu jumped forward and kicked Liu Qingzhen in the stomach!

Liu Qingzhen was unprepared. He was kicked more than a hundred feet away by Yun Chujiu! Never in his dreams did Liu Qingzhen think that Yun Chujiu would have the guts to kick him in front of so many people!

“Shut your damn mouth! Didn’t your family teach you how to respect the Old and love the young? Do you know how to speak human language?”Yun Chujiu said as she jumped to Liu Qingzhen’s side. While he was still in a daze, she kicked his mute acupoint.

Yun Chujiu picked up the spoon and banged on the copper basin. “Come and take a look! The West Peak’s Law Enforcement Agency is bullying us! They’re going to storm Middle Peak’s dining hall! Those from the south and the north, don’t miss it!”
