

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1346

That night, Yun Chujiu found a cave to shelter from the wind. She lit up the alchemy furnace on the bonfire and started to cook beef. She had a great time eating.

“This is really pure green food. The meat is delicious and tastes great!”

The three Xiao Heiniaos squatted by the side and ate the roasted meat with resentment. It was not that Yun Chujiu was stingy, but the three of them could not use chopsticks. They could not reach into the pot with their claws, so they could only watch Yun Chujiu eat.

Xiao Heiniao cursed in her heart. The only ones who could treat the trial as a field trip were probably us, the black-hearted masters!

Yun Chujiu was full and had the three little ones take turns to be on guard while she slept soundly.

The night was very peaceful. Yun Chujiu slept until dawn. She felt that she had most likely encountered a fake mystic realm this time. How could it be so peaceful? It was really strange.

After breakfast, Yun Chujiu continued to walk forward. In the middle, she also encountered some low-level demon beasts. Some thought that Yun Chujiu was at the fifth level of the spirit sect, so they came up to provoke her. They were all killed by Yun Chujiu and used as reserves.

Yun chujiu would occasionally let Xiao Hei's three-tailed and half-tailed little red fox practice. Only the little black bird would lie on Yun Chujiu's shoulder and cheer her on, because this wild mystic realm also forbade flying.

"Xiao Hei, it's not that I dislike you, master. Don't you have to learn some other skills? At least you have to learn from me, master. You can run faster with two legs. Otherwise, in the future, you can only watch and do nothing. Aren't You Lonely?"

Thus, Xiao Heiniaio began the miserable training process.

It was often chased by demon beasts from behind. It would fall and crawl. Alright, this fellow had already used two wings as its front legs!

Needless to say, after Yun Chujiu's 'Patience' training, Xiao Heiniaio had forcefully learned to use her two wings and two legs to run. When there were low-level demonic beasts, Xiao Heiniaio could also rush up and join the battle.

Those demonic beasts were all dumbfounded!

What the hell was this black thing?

Could it be that its wings were drooping and it had broken bones? Was it a flame-spitting crow with Broken Wings?

On this day, Yun Chujiu was still walking forward while picking spiritual herbs. After hearing the sound of running water, she curiously walked forward for a few miles. Then, she found that there was a wide river in front of her.

A gentle breeze blew, creating ripples. It was a pleasant sight to see.

Yun chujiu did not dare to get too close. There must be aquatic beasts in such a wide river. It was better to be careful.

Yun chujiu took out a stone and threw it over. Strangely, there was no reaction in the river. Yun Chujiu threw a few more stones, but there was still no reaction.

Yun chujiu then carefully walked to the shore and looked into the water.

The water was so clear that the bottom could be seen clearly. Even the sand below could be seen clearly, but there was not even a single aquatic plant, let alone aquatic demonic beasts.

This was strange. How could such clear water be so lifeless? Could it be that there was poison in the water?

Yun Chujiu decided to stay behind to observe. Hence, she jumped onto a big tree by the bank and prepared to see if there were any demon beasts coming over to drink water or if there were aquatic demon beasts appearing in the river.

After a full half a day, not a single demon beast came over to drink water. The river was even quieter and weirder. Other than the ripples caused by the wind, there was nothing else.

Yun chujiu took out a golden-armored turtle from the great void mystic realm and threw it into the river. The golden-armored turtle fluttered a few times in the water before it disappeared!

Yun chujiu rubbed her eyes. Where was the golden-armored turtle? Where did it go?
