

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1353

Yun Chujiu quickly took out puppet No. 1 and placed a few supreme-grade spirit stones before giving the order to kill these Savage Wolves.

Puppet No. 1 immediately rushed out of the defensive barrier and charged towards a savage wolf.

That Savage Wolf was scared silly!

What the hell was this?

Obviously, it had never seen anything like a puppet before. When it saw Puppet No. 1 charging over, it could only use its claws to grab puppet No. 1. It did not expect that puppet no. 1 was refined iron. Its hooves clawed at it, only a faint scratch was left.

Puppet No. 1 kicked the Savage Wolf's head. The Savage Wolf was also shocked for a moment. It did not Dodge and was kicked directly by puppet No. 1. It screamed and fainted.

"No. 1, hurry up and deal with the other Wild Wild Wolves. Leave this one to me!" Yun Chujiu said excitedly. I am good at this kind of backstabbing.

After Puppet No. 1 received the order, it rushed to the other four wild wild wolves. The four wild wolves were stunned and confused. This damn thing was too powerful? It defeated their companion in one move?

The four wild wolves gave up on attacking Yun Chujiu and started to attack puppet No. 1.

In fact, Puppet No. 1 was not that strong. It was just that the wild wolf from before was a little stunned, which was why puppet No. 1 managed to kill it in one move.

However, Puppet No. 1 had one advantage, and that was its strong resistance to attacks. It was made of refined iron, so the claws and teeth of the wild wolf could only deal limited damage to it.

Yun chujiu could actually use this time to escape, but this fellow was unwilling to abandon puppet no. 1, so after killing the Savage Wolf, it also joined the battle.

This fellow was extremely regretful now. If she had known earlier, she would not have refined puppet No. 2's gigolo. If she had refined puppet no. 2 into the same as puppet No. 1, wouldn't she have been much more relaxed now?

Yun Chujiu had decided that she would refine a hundred and eighty puppets when she returned. At that time, whoever dared to provoke her, she would let the puppets torture them to death. Yes, that was what she would do!

Two hours later, Yun Chujiu finally killed the remaining four wild wolves at a heavy price. She had lost more than half of her defensive spiritual artifacts, and puppet No. 1's joints were also severely damaged by the wild wolves.

Although puppet No. 1's entire body was refined from fine iron, its joints were much weaker compared to other parts. If the damage was serious, it would affect its movement.

After Yun Chujiu put away the five wild wolves' corpses, she forced herself to leave, afraid that the smell of blood would attract other demon beasts.

The white steamed bun in the underground palace was so angry that he gritted his teeth. How could he escape like this? This is fucking sick!

Girl, you wait, this is only the beginning, I must let you die a complete corpse!

Yun chujiu forced to run a distance, leaned against a tree, began to pant, Emma, damn the white steamed bread! You Want to kill her? No Way!

Before Yun Chujiu could catch her breath, she saw two twenty-six level wild fire tigers rushing towards her. Yun chujiu almost spat out a mouthful of blood. Lie Yan, you are ruthless! We are not afraid of settling scores. Just you wait!

“Stop! I have something to say to you!” Yun chujiu shouted.

The two wild fire tigers were actually frightened by lie Yan’s shout. They stopped and stared at Yun Chujiu with their huge eyes, wanting to hear what she had to say.
