

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1355

"Lord Tigers, I only said half of what I said just now. Now, I'm going to tell you, do you know where the poison from the river came from?"

The two wild fire tigers shook their heads. They thought to themselves, of course we don't know. F * ck, if we know who did this, we'll kill him! Lie Yan, do you know where the poison came from!

"Sigh, actually, I didn't expect this either. But when I absorbed all the poison and wanted to cross the river, I was sucked into a palace by a huge suction force. Ouch!" "Why did my legs suddenly run out of strength? Lord Tigers, please wait for me to rest for a while. Let's continue walking." Yun chujiu staggered and sat on the ground.

The two wildfire tigers were engrossed in listening and scratching their ears and cheeks to see if the river was really free of poison. When they saw Yun Chujiu's reaction, they roared angrily. "Lie Yan!"

Yun chujiu frowned and said, "My two lords, I really don't have any strength left. Why don't... Why don't I Lick My Face and sit on the back of one of you?" "Forget it, I know that this request is too much. Let's wait for me to recover from this."

One of the Wild Raging Flame Tigers impatiently roared a few times before lying down on the ground. Lie Yan's face was filled with disbelief.

Yun Chujiu's face revealed an expression of disbelief. "Lord Tiger, you... you really agreed? Heavens, you are simply the wisest and most unrestrained demon beast that I have ever seen. Then I will boldly go up."

Yun chujiu climbed onto the back of Lie Yan's Tiger. A trace of pride flashed across her eyes. Little Fellow, with just my mouth, not only did I save my life, I even got a free mount. I have to admire myself!

Lie Yan and lie Yan continued to walk forward, yun chujiu continued, “When I regained consciousness, I actually found a tool spirit that looked like a white steamed bun standing in front of me. It opened its mouth and threatened me to hand over some weak water. It turns out that the reason why the river is poisonous is that the tool spirit added weak water into the river. Don’t you think this tool spirit deserves to die?”

The two wildfire tigers stopped in their tracks in shock. What? Lie Yan? The poison in the river water was actually released by the Qi Ling? What was it for?

“Lord Tigers, continue walking. Let’s talk as we walk.”. After hearing what Bai Mantou said, I immediately rebuked him angrily. What he did was simply letting down the Qi Ling’s reputation. As a Qi ling, he should be seeking benefits for the demonic beasts in the great desolate realm. He actually poisoned the entire river in order to not be disturbed. Such a black-hearted Qi ling really deserves to be killed!”

Two Savage Lie Yan Tiger listen to the frequent nod, the little girl is right, this Qi Ling is really too shameless, too wicked!

“At first, I wanted to just beat the Qi Ling to death, but I thought that if the Qi Ling died, the Great Wilderness would be in chaos, so I didn’t kill it, just gave it a little lesson.

Never thought that this shameless Qi Ling, pretended to repent, but took advantage of my slack time, my that treasure deceived away, but also sent me out, said to let the Demon Beast Eat me! Do you think that white steamed bun is too shameless, too wicked?”Yun Chujiu said angrily.

Two wild fire tiger angry roar, also did not think of the hole in the words of Yun Chujiu, immediately carry Yun Chujiu to lie Yan.

The white steamed bun in the underground palace thought that Yun Chujiu was dead for sure, so he just took a nap for a while, and now that he saw it, he was so surprised that his eyeballs almost fell off!

What was going on?

Not only did the smelly girl not die, she even rode lie Yan towards the river?

Was his vision blurred, or did lie Yan go crazy?
