

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1366

After Bai Mantou struck more than 100 bolts of lightning, he took a closer look and saw that Yun chujiu was still sitting there leisurely. There was nothing wrong with her!

Impossible!

How was this possible?

How could more than 100 bolts of lightning not kill her?

“Bai Mantou, I’ve said it before. You’re a trash. Don’t strike anymore. Even if you strike, it’ll be for nothing. TSK TSK, this is the first time I’ve seen such a trash weapon spirit.” Qi Ling looked at Bai Mantou

Bai Mantou was furious. I don’t believe that I can’t hack you to death. I’ll Hack! I’ll Hack! I’ll Hack!

Rumble! Rumble! Rumble!

An unending stream of heavenly lightning began to strike. Yun Chujiu didn’t care about this little bit of lightning at all. However, she discovered a problem. The lightning spiritual force in her body was actually starting to stir. Could it be that she was about to break through?

Yun Chujiu's heart was filled with joy. She did not expect to have such an unexpected harvest. It seemed that she had to let the white bun strike her for a while more.

An hour passed. Yun Chujiu was still alive and kicking. The white bun could not help but feel a little discouraged. Could it be that this stinky girl was really not afraid of being struck by lightning?

"White bun, have you used up all the power of lightning? "Haha, to tell you the truth, I have already reached the limit of what I can bear. However, you have no power of lightning. Haha, Are You So angry that you want to die?" Yun chujiu placed her hands on her waist, she looked up at the sky.

Bai Mantou was delighted. This brat had already reached her limit? That's great! She still had half of her power of lightning left. She would definitely be struck to death!

Hence, Bai Mantou struck Yun Chujiu again!

After a quarter of an hour, Yun chujiu lay on the ground and said weakly, "Damn you, Bai Mantou, do you think you can kill me? Although I only have one breath left, don't even think about killing me!"

When Bai Mantou heard Yun Chujiu's words, how could he hold back? Another bolt of lightning struck down.

“Aiyo, aiyo, I am only left with half a breath. However, damn you, Bai Mantou, do you not have the power of lightning anymore? I can feel that the power of lightning just now has begun to weaken, so you can not kill me. When I am better, I will look for you. I will beat you into a white pancake! “I’ll Sun you up until you’re dry!”

Bai Mantou was so angry that he didn’t care how much power of the Lightning he still had. All of it struck at Yun Chujiu. In the end, the heavenly lightning was only as thick as a finger!

Yun Chujiu estimated that Bai Mantou had exhausted the power of the lightning, so she stopped pretending and stood up, she smiled at Wu Yun in the sky and said, “Bai Mantou, thank you very much. If it weren’t for you, I wouldn’t have been able to successfully break through. Although your formation lightning is a little weak and only allowed me to advance by three levels, it’s still not bad.”

What?

Not only did the smelly girl not die, but she also broke through?

Bai mantou rubbed his eyes in disbelief and then fell to the ground.

It’s over!

He was tricked!

Only then did Bai Mantou realize that he had used all the power of lightning. How was he going to deter those demonic beasts in the future?

Just when Bai Mantou had nothing to live for.., he heard Yun chujiu say, “Bai Mantou, you don’t have any power of lightning now. If you don’t want to be bullied by the demonic beasts in the future, then quickly get your ass over here. Otherwise, HMPH!”

Bai Mantou struggled with himself for a long time. He chose between his self-esteem and reality and obediently teleported himself in front of Yun Chujiu.

“Little Fairy, did you really break through? I could tell that you might break through, so I helped you.” Bai Mantou said flatteringly.
