

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1369

Following the end of the trial, Tian Yuan Academy regained its normal order.

Yun chujiu had created dozens of refined iron puppets during her spare time. However, she realized that her spiritual sense could not be separated frequently, so after making three more puppet discs, she did not dare to continue.

However, she felt that it was more or less enough. Even if the refined iron puppets were to be damaged, she could just change the puppet discs to better refined iron puppets.

Yun chujiu still had a useless name, so the five puppets were, as expected, number one, number two, number three, number four, and number five.

This guy was still very proud of himself. The names that she had given him were so good that they could go down the list without ending. Even if she had tens of thousands of puppets in the future, she could still call them number ten thousand!

Not only did Yun chujiu build so many puppets, she also added a lot of chili noodles, rapeseed oil, and the like into her storage ring. This guy thought that it was always good to be prepared. Yin haoyu, that old thing, had not made any moves, perhaps he was holding back some big move!

That afternoon, Yun Chujiu returned to the dormitory after class and was taking a nap when she heard someone knocking on the door outside the courtyard.

Yun chujju shouted impatiently, "Who is it? Why are you knocking in the middle of the day? It's so annoying!"

However, she still got up and walked out of the room angrily. She estimated that the person who came was most likely a dry old man. This old bastard had often come to study Yun Chujju's puppet number one ever since he knew about it.

After Yun Chujju opened the courtyard door, she couldn't help but be stunned. There was a man standing at the door with a hint of melancholy in his eyes.

Lan Luo Chen?

What was he doing here?

Yun chujju was obviously from the appearance association. When she saw that beautiful face, she couldn't say anything drastic. She could only ask, "Lan Luo Chen, are you looking for me?"

Lan Luo Chen nodded. "Can I go in?"

Naturally, Yun chujiu could not reject him, so she let Lan Luo Chen into the courtyard.

Lan Luo Chen glanced around and was very surprised. The courtyard was actually very warm. In addition to the flowers and plants in the courtyard, there were also three pear trees. The fruits on them had already matured and were emitting a sweet fragrance.

Whether it was the swing under the tree or the stone table on the south side of the courtyard, they all made the entire courtyard seem extremely warm. Lan Luo Chen inexplicably liked this place.

Yun chujiu saw that Lan Luo Chen had been looking at the Zhushan fruit trees. She thought to herself, could it be that he was craving for fruits?

Hence, she picked a plate of fruits and said, "Eat a fruit! The taste is still not bad!"

Lan Luo Chen stretched out his hand to take the Zhushan fruit and said indifferently, "Thank you!"

Yun chujiu looked at Lan Luo Chen's hands and could not help but curse in her heart. What the hell was a man doing with such good-looking hands? ! Compared to his hands, her hands were like chicken feet!

Lan Luo Chen did not eat the fruit but kept it in his storage ring, then he said, "Yun Chujiu, I came here this time to ask if you have picked any purple sunflower grass in the Great Wilderness? If you have it, I am willing to buy it at a high price, or you can use it to exchange for it."

Yun Chujiu's heart moved. Purple Sunflower Grass? Bai Mantou gave her a few stalks, but she didn't have any relationship with Lan Luo Chen, so why should she sell it to him? This purple sunflower grass was extinct now, and she might use it at any time, so she couldn't admit that she had it.

Therefore, Yun Chujiu said in surprise, "Purple Sunflower Grass? Isn't that a heaven rank spiritual herb? I only picked a few black rank spiritual herbs in it to exchange for contribution points. You'd better ask someone else."
