

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1378

"Forget it, it's just this once. Senior brother Feng Ming, if there's a next time, HMPH, you know what I mean!" Yun chujie also knew that Feng Ming's intentions were good.

Feng Ming did not expect to pass so easily. His heart that had been in suspense for several days finally relaxed.

On the other side, the secret guards of the Temple of Immortals were considered to be unlucky!

After di beiming returned to the temple of Immortals, he began the hell devil training. Even an yin could not stand it anymore!

The palace mistress also heard the news, so she called di beiming over.

When the palace mistress saw di Beiming's appearance, she knew that something must have happened. The cold air on di Beiming's body could freeze people to death.

"Beiming, what's wrong with you?"

"Nothing."

“You Little Brat, if you have something to say, just say it. Why are you always holding it in? Did you get into a fight with little jiu?”The hall master’s wife had a headache over di beiming’s character of not saying anything at all.

“En!”

The hall master’s wife was very surprised. She did not expect di beiming to really admit it, hence, she said, “What’s going on? Tell mother. Mother is also a woman. Perhaps she can understand Little Jiu’s thoughts. Mother will help you to analyze it.”

Di beiming had not been able to eat or sleep well for the past few days. When he saw the hall master’s wife asking, his eyes turned slightly red. He felt that he had not done anything wrong. Little Jiu’s actions were really too heartbreaking.

After di beiming explained the matter briefly, the hall master’s wife smashed the coffee table with a single slap!

“Damn it! Chu Lingyun that slut had fought with me for Ling Han when she was young. Now her son is fighting with my son for a wife. What a slut’s son!

“Your father even helped that B * tch look for the purple sunflower grass. He thought I didn’t know. I just didn’t want to be calculative with a person who is about to die! “I didn’t expect that B * Tch’s son actually wanted my daughter-in-law. This is really outrageous!”

The corner of di Beiming’s eyes twitched violently. If his mother had heard his father calling her a B * tch, the two of them would probably bicker again.

“Beiming, although Little Nine’s actions were a little inappropriate, you also know that Little Nine is naive and romantic. She doesn’t have any female elders to teach her since she was young, so it’s inevitable that she won’t care about small details.

She definitely didn’t think of anything else. She’s naturally wholeheartedly devoted to you. However, with you making such a big fuss and talking so excessively, of course the little girl can’t take it.

Moreover, if they were quarreling, why did you come back? You have to talk things out before you come back. Aren’t you giving that Lan Luo Chen a chance?

Silly son, don’t do this next time! Hurry up and find a time to talk things out with little nine. Girls need to be coaxed. You have to change this bad temper of yours. Otherwise, you will still have to quarrel with little nine in the future.”The palace master’s wife advised him earnestly.

“Okay, I got it,”di beiming said in a muffled voice. Actually, after his anger had subsided, he had calmed down and regretted it. However, when he heard Yun chujiu say that, he could not control himself at all.

Moreover, this time, it was black thing who had done something wrong. Why should he admit his mistake? He just did not admit his mistake. He did not believe that black thing would not come to find him!

Di beiming decided to have a Cold War, so the secret guards of the Temple of Immortals continued to live in misery, an Yin could only secretly send a message to an feng, "An Feng, quickly think of a way to make ninth miss and your excellency reconcile. Otherwise, our lives will be worse than death!"

Although an Feng was far away from the center of the storm, he was still quite loyal. Taking advantage of the opportunity that Yun Chujiu came to deliver the talisman, he eagerly asked, "Ninth miss, you... you are quarreling with Our Excellency?"
