

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1381

"HMPH! You still want me to die in front of you? You still want me to be greedy? You still want me to be greedy? Oh, OH..."

That damned gigolo. He just started to kiss each other whenever they didn't get along. Really, really, Oh, I'm going to faint..

An Yin and Xiao Heiniao took the initiative to fill a corner with mushrooms. They hated it when they started to kiss each other whenever they wanted. It was simply a sure-kill technique to torture a single dog.

The two of them were kissing until the sky turned dark. There was a knock on the door from outside. "Yun Chujiu, the house has sent over some golden tangerines. I've brought them for you."

Di beiming did not give Yun chujiu a chance to reply at all. He attacked even more ferociously. Yun Chujiu was already in a daze from the kiss. How could she still have the time to reply to Lan Luochen.

Lan Luochen repeated it a few times. When he saw that there was still no answer, he thought that perhaps Yun chujiu was not in the dormitory. He would come back tomorrow.

Di beiming felt that Lan Luochen had gone far away, so he let go of Yun chujiu and said, "Humph, he really doesn't want to give up! If I'm not here, would you have tea and chat with him again?"

“Of course not. Since I know that you are not happy that I have a close relationship with him, I naturally have to keep a distance from him.” Yun chujiu pouted.

“HMPH, it’s best if that’s the case. If I find out that you don’t keep your word, I will definitely tie you up and bring you back to the temple of Immortals.”

“Prince Charming, don’t worry. I always keep my word.” Yun chujiu pursed her lips in her heart. Brat, you still want to tie me up? Why Don’t you try tying me up? I’ll kill you!

Di beiming nodded, but he was calculating in his heart. That Damned Lan Luo Chen and Little Jiu were deskmates. This won’t do. I have to find Dean Huangfu and separate them.., in case Little Jiu’s position wasn’t firm and was fooled by that damned Lan Luo Chen again.

Before di beiming left, he went to Dean Huangfu and told him his intentions. Dean Huangfu naturally agreed. This wasn’t a big deal, as long as this fiend didn’t lose his temper again.

Hence, Yun Chujiu was moved to the same table as Feng Ming.

Lan Luo Chen naturally understood that this was di beiming’s trick. He laughed coldly in his heart. He even said that Yun Chujiu had a fiancé. It was obvious that di beiming didn’t like him. The way he looked at Yun Chujiu was clearly the gaze of a lover, everyone had been deceived by him!

So what if they were not deskmates? The distance between me and Yun Chujiu is much closer than you. I don't believe that Yun Chujiu would be such an overbearing and unreasonable boor!

For the next period of time, Lan Luochen did not go to look for Yun Chujiu. Usually, when they met, they would just nod and greet each other.

Yun chujiu heaved a sigh of relief in her heart. This was the best. Otherwise, she really did not know how to reject him and look for her again.

Recently, Yun Chujiu had been thinking about something. This fellow wanted to skip a grade.

If one wanted to complete the Tianyuan Academy's curriculum within three years, then one had to skip a grade in order to achieve it. Hence, this fellow hopped and went to look for Dean Huangfu.

"Dean! Dean! I want to skip a grade!"

"There are conditions for skipping a grade. You have to be in the top ten in this year's mid-year competition before you have the right to skip a grade." Dean Huangfu wasn't too surprised. After all, this fellow's leveling speed was too fast.

“It’s that simple? Then I understand, Dean. Goodbye!” Yun Chujiu said and left again.

Dean Huangfu was so angry that his nose was crooked. You left after asking? You Really Don’t take me, a dignified dean, seriously! Besides, it’s simple? Although your talent is indeed abnormal, I heard that you haven’t learned the intermediate materialized spell yet. Moreover, the uncertainty of the competition is very high. Are you sure that you can enter the top ten?
