

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1388

"Don't worry, didn't I ask you to protect me? I even think that you guys are a burden!" Yun chujiu curled her lips and said.

Although the seven of them were furious, they had to admit that even the seven of them could not beat a little girl. They were indeed useless.

"I'll give you guys a task. You guys spread the news that the members of the Netherworld Palace have come in. This way, everyone will be on guard so that they won't be caught off guard by the members of the Netherworld Palace."

The seven of them had never expected Yun chujiu to make such a request. However, what did this have to do with getting rich?

Yun chujiu smiled at them. "As long as you complete this task, I'll reward each of you with a million high-grade spirit stones. How about that? This is much more than what you've earned from robbing, right?"

The seven of them could not believe their ears. Was this little girl really sick? It would not benefit her if they passed the message to her. Why was she so generous?

Yun chujiu could see the doubts of the seven of them, she sighed and said, "Actually, I am the kindest person. How could I bear to see our compatriots being killed by the people of the Netherworld Palace?"

“Therefore, I would rather pay my own money to deliver the message to them. Swear on your inner demons. After the matter is done, I will give you the spiritual stones.”

The seven of them had no other choice but to swear on their inner demons, swearing that they would do their best to deliver the letter. Yun chujia even took out the recording stone and recorded a message for them, this way, the credibility of meeting the students of Tianyuan Academy would be higher.

Only then did Yun chujia let the seven of them leave. The seven of them wanted to cry but had no tears. They were originally here to rob, but now, not only were they robbed, they even became errand boys!

Fortunately, the little girl did not use them for nothing. Otherwise, they would really die of cowardice!

After the seven of them left, the little black bird asked Yun chujia, “Master, even if you force them to deliver the letter, they still have to agree. Why did you agree to give them one million high-grade spirit stones? Seven people is seven million?”

“How can we just let the cow do the work and not feed the cow grass? With spirit stones, they will have more motivation. This way, the efficiency will be higher. As for spirit stones, when the wool is on the sheep, I will naturally let the people who were saved take it out. I only moved my mouth, why not?”

Xiao Heinia, silent.

Alright, it was really unnecessary to ask. Their black-hearted master would never do business at a loss!

Yun chujju rested for a moment and continued to walk forward. This fellow was very puzzled. Why didn't he meet anyone from the Netherworld Palace? Perhaps the sixteen people she killed were in charge of this area? So the others did not come over?

Just as Yun chujju was cursing in her heart, eight people came over.

Although their clothes were no different from those freelance martial artists, Yun Chujju could immediately tell that these people were from the Netherworld Palace. This was because these people's spiritual powers were very high, and their movements were uniform. It was obvious that they were trained secret guards, moreover, their eyes were filled with killing intent.

Yun chujju was a little puzzled. Logically speaking, shouldn't there be sixteen people in their group? Why were there only eight this time? However, it was good to have fewer people. It was just the right time to kill them all.

When those people saw Yun chujju, their eyes immediately lit up. Without any explanation, they surrounded Yun chujju in the middle.

Yun chujju did not run either. Even if she ran, she would be caught. Moreover, after the battle with the seven people just now, it had already proven the power of the five puppets. Killing these eight people should not be a big problem.
