

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1390

The people of the nether world palace looked around but did not find anyone else. They thought that Yun Chujiu was bluffing and sneered as they attacked Yun chujiu with their spiritual power.

After Yun Chujiu activated the defensive spiritual weapon on her body, she released five puppets. "No. 12345, Go! Let's show them the power of our puppet army of Yun Chujiu!"

The people of the nether world palace were shocked when they saw the five puppets. However, they felt that Yun chujiu must have wanted these puppets to block their attack and then escape. She must be dreaming. How could five refined iron puppets stop them? It was simply a dream.

However, they were horrified to find that the five puppets were not used to block but to attack!

How was this possible?

Weren't the refined iron puppets only used for defense? Moreover, if they were not careful, even their masters would be injured by accident. Why did these five puppets seem to have intelligence?

Who exactly was this little girl?

Why were her spiritual energy materialization and puppets so strange?

The five puppets dealt with five people respectively, while Yun Chujiu dealt with three people alone. She released several spiritual energy piglets to charge at the three people and summoned eight immortal swords, aiming at the vital points of the three people.

The shock in the hearts of the three people could not be described with words. How could one person control eight spiritual swords at the same time? This smelly girl's spiritual sense was too abnormal!

They finally believed that dharma protector Tao had sent back Yun Chujiu's name. It was definitely not a misunderstanding. It seemed that the failure of the previous plan was directly related to this smelly girl.

Although the three people were extremely shocked, they thought that it should be no problem for three to fight against one, so they stepped up their attacks.

They never expected that even if some of the spiritual power attacks were not swallowed by the spiritual power piglet, when they got close to Yun Chujiu, Yun Chujiu's body would flash and block the attacks outside, this stinky girl actually had a lot of defensive spiritual weapons on her!

The three of them had a bad premonition in their hearts. It seemed that it was impossible to take down this stinky girl today. They had better retreat first. After finding their companions, they would deal with this stinky girl!

Just as the three of them were about to escape, they heard a few miserable screams. With the corner of their eyes, they realized that three of their companions had already been killed by the refined iron puppets.

Oh My God! was the attack power of the refined iron puppets so powerful?

“Number two, number three, and number five, I’ll leave these three to you. Kill them all! Don’t leave a single one alive!” Yun Chujiu ordered the puppets.

The three iron puppets immediately pounced on the three of them, their hair tangled together.

Yun Chujiu, on the other hand, would occasionally launch sneak attacks with her piglets. Their cooperation was flawless and perfect.

An hour later, the battle ended. Except for the leader who was left alive, the rest of the people were killed by the puppets.

Yun chujiu took out a large kitchen knife and pressed it on the neck of the leader. “Tell me, how many people did you sneak in this time?”

Just as the leader was about to take poison to commit suicide, Yun Chujiu removed his chin and took out the poison from his teeth, then, she used the large kitchen knife to cut the man's face. "You want to play the trick of taking poison to commit suicide with me? You're underestimating me too much. I have many ways to torture you. If you don't want to suffer, tell me the truth!"

The man snorted. "It's just some physical pain. Just go ahead and do it."

"Oh, I didn't expect you to have such a backbone. What a pity, what a pity. It's just that your brain isn't very good. Do you think I can't do anything if you don't tell me? Since you won't tell me, then I'll search your soul!" "Then you'll become a fool. Even if you reincarnate, you'll still be a fool. Do you really not regret it?" Yun chujiu asked with a smile.
