

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1398

Yun chujiu could not think of a good idea at the moment, so she could only wait and see.

“Dharma Protector Lin, what should we do next?”

“Because the situation is unclear, we will stay here for the time being. In seven days, the Misty Valley will close. At that time, we will be ejected out, and we will naturally be able to escape,” dharma protector Lin said in a deep voice.

“What about these hostages?”

Dharma Protector Lin looked at Feng Ming and the others with disdain. “The value of these people is really limited. Kill them before we go out to avoid being a burden.”

After a while, those people began to eat their lunch. Yun Chujiu gave Lan Luochen a look and the two of them left carefully.

“What should we do? The two of us can’t defeat those people at all.” Yun Chujiu said with a frown.

Lan Luochen’s expression was also very grave. “With the two of us’ abilities, it is indeed impossible to save them unless we can contact other people. However, we are unable to use the sound transmission talisman in this Misty Valley and the area here is very large. It is really very difficult to contact them.”

The two of them discussed for a long while but did not come up with any good ideas. They could only carefully hide their tracks and check on the situation of the people of the Netherworld Palace from time to time, hoping to find a suitable opportunity to strike.

As time passed, Yun Chujiu could not sit still anymore!

“Lan Luochen, the longer we drag this out, the more disadvantageous it will be for us. Let’s do it this way. I am their number one target, so I will go and attract their attention. Once I run away, they will definitely chase after me. If there are fewer people chasing after me, you will kill them together with me. If there are more people chasing after me, you will kill the rest of them. Save Feng Ming and the others, and then go and save me.”

Lan Luochen felt that this was too risky, but Yun Chujiu had already made up her mind. Seeing that his persuasion was ineffective, he could only agree to Yun Chujiu’s plan.

Yun Chujiu deliberately took a detour, then hopped towards the direction of the people from the Hall of the dead.

The people from the hall of the dead soon discovered Yun Chujiu, and someone exclaimed, "Dharma Protector Lin! Yun Chujiu! It's actually that damned girl, Yun Chujiu! I didn't expect her to come to us of her own accord. What a great fortune!"

A hint of joy flashed across Dharma Protector Lin's eyes. He had thought that he was going to return empty-handed this time. He didn't expect that Yun Chujiu, that big fish, would actually take the initiative to bump into the net. The heavens were really helping him.

Feng Ming and the others who were caught felt their hearts sink. Wasn't junior sister little jiu sending herself to her death? You Should Run! No matter how powerful you were, you wouldn't be able to defeat so many people. Moreover, their spiritual power was much higher than yours.

They had no hope of being rescued. After all, no matter how heaven-defying Yun Chujiu was, it was impossible for her to defeat so many people from the Netherworld Palace.

Dharma Protector Lin waved his hand, and a group of people jumped towards Yun Chujiu, wanting to catch her.

At this moment, Yun Chujiu seemed to have suddenly come to her senses and cried out in alarm, "Ah, help! Quick, help! These bastards want to kill me!"

Yun chujia screamed as she ran, and the people from the nether world palace chased after her relentlessly.

Yun chujia turned her head and glanced at them. It seemed that the nether world palace really wanted to capture her. More than half of them had come to capture her!

Since there were many people who came to capture her, Lan Luochen could take the opportunity to rescue Feng Ming and the others. She had to lure these people further away.

Therefore, Yun chujia used all her strength and ran forward like a wind and fire wheel.

The people of the Nether World Palace were so angry that they gritted their teeth. Yun chujia, this wretched girl, was clearly only at the fifth level of the Spirit sect. How could she run so fast?
