

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1402

Dharma Protector Lin subconsciously took two steps back. Then, he felt a flash before his eyes. His neck had been grabbed by Lan Luo Chen!

Lan Luo Chen stared at him. "Where is Yun Chujiu?"

Dharma Protector Lin was almost choked to death. He pointed at his neck repeatedly. Only then did Lan Luo Chen let go of Dharma Protector Lin's neck. Just as Dharma Protector Lin wanted to run, Lan Luo Chen slapped his back.

Dharma Protector Lin spat out a mouthful of blood. Lan Luo Chen stepped on his back and asked, "Tell me, where is Yun Chujiu?"

"She, she jumped down from the cliff in front and fell into the pool."

Lan Luo Chen exerted strength under his feet and Dharma Protector Lin died. Then, he waved his hands and a qilin with even greater spiritual power than before rushed towards the people of the Netherworld Palace.

Soon, the situation became Lan Luo Chen's one-sided massacre.

Feng Ming and the others were dumbstruck. They had seen the battle between Lan Luochen and the people of the Netherworld Palace before. Although they were also very powerful, they were completely different from the one in front of them.

The LAN Luochen in front of them seemed to have completely changed into a different person. Previously, Lan Luochen was cold and aloof, but now, Lan Luochen was like a cold-blooded Asura.

What was even more unbelievable was that the more than twenty people of the Netherworld Palace were basically all at the spirit paragon level or above, but in front of Lan Luochen, they actually had no power to fight back.

However, before this, Lan Luochen had spent a lot of effort to get rid of those people. Why was this?

A moment later, the people of the Netherworld Palace had all turned into corpses.

Lan Luochen directly jumped to the place where Yun Chujiu jumped off the cliff. As expected, there was a pool below.

Lan Luochen took out a rope from his storage ring. After fixing one end of the rope on a tree, he climbed down the cliff.

Feng Ming and the other two also climbed down the rope. They blamed themselves in their hearts. They knew that Yun Chujiu put herself in danger to save them. Otherwise, with Yun Chujiu's intelligence, it was impossible for her to take the initiative to deliver herself to them.

After Lan Luo Chen jumped into the pool, he discovered that the pool was not very deep. Moreover, there was a gap that formed a small stream that extended into the distance.

Lan Luo Chen dived into the bottom of the pool and found that there was some fine sand at the bottom of the pool. There were also some small fish and shrimp swimming around. He did not find Yun Chujiu's figure.

Could it be that Yun chujiu escaped after falling into the pool?

Lan Luo Chen carefully checked the surrounding ground. He did not find any traces of blood, but he also did not find any traces of people walking. However, it was also possible that Yun Chujiu was afraid of being discovered by the people of the Hall of the dead, so she deliberately erased her tracks.

Lan Luo Chen realized that it was very likely that Yun Chujiu was not dead. He let out a sigh of relief in his heart. Then, his vision went black and he directly fainted.

Fortunately, Feng Ming and the others were by his side. They fed him water and pills. Only then did Lan Luo Chen wake up. However, his eyes had already returned to their normal color. His entire temperament had become cold and otherworldly once again.

Although Feng Ming and the other two did not understand, they did not ask further. Instead, they said, “Lan Luochen, there is no corpse of junior sister little nine down here. This means that junior sister little nine will definitely be safe and sound.”

Lan Luochen nodded. “Yun Chujiu will definitely be fine. Let’s split up and look for her. Even if she leaves, she won’t be able to go far.”

Feng Ming and the others nodded in agreement and began to split up to look for Yun Chujiu.

Five days later, the time for the Misty Valley to close had arrived. Everyone was ejected out one after another.

However, Lan Luochen, Feng Ming, and the others didn’t find any traces of Yun chujiu..
