

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1408

Yun Chujiu's face revealed a terrified expression. "What? You Can't be that vicious, right? You put me into the poisonous spring? I'm so scared, I'm scared to death!"

The little skeleton saw Yun Chujiu's terrified expression and was instantly extremely pleased with himself!

"Stinky Girl, You Know Fear, right? Although you are the Heavenly Thunder Spirit Root that the Heavenly Dao can not tolerate, I originally didn't want to do anything to you, but you are really too shameless!"

Is there anyone who picks mushrooms like you? That is not called picking mushrooms, that is called snatching mushrooms. If it were not for those people from the Netherworld Palace jumping out, you might have dug up all of my mushrooms!" Xiao Mogu said angrily.

"Xiao Mogu, what you said is wrong! I know that I can not fish from the pond. Didn't I leave those little mushrooms for you? Don't be ungrateful, okay?"

Xiao Mogu had never seen such a thick-skinned person. He was so angry that he was trembling. "Cut the crap. Are you going to apologize to me or not? Quickly acknowledge me as your master, or I will really throw you into the poisonous spring!"

Yun chujiu suddenly stepped forward and kicked Xiao Mogu's body. Xiao Mogu was immediately broken into pieces and gathered together again. "Stupid girl, you dare to kick me? !"

“Humph! Little skeleton, to tell you the truth, the reason why I haven’t taken care of you for so many days is to see what you are capable of. Now it seems that you are a little trash. Let’s see how I’ll take care of you!”

The little skeleton was broken into pieces again by Yun Chujiu’s kick. Just as they gathered together, it was broken into pieces again..

The little skeleton cried out angrily, “Stinky girl! Don’t think that I’m trying to scare you. If you kick me again, I’ll really throw you into the poisonous spring!”

In response to it, Little Nine’s shadowless feet kept on kicking!

The little skeleton gritted its teeth. Yun chujiu only felt a white light flash, and she was already in a warm spring.

It was very comfortable to soak in it. As for poison? What a joke. To this guy, there was no such thing as poison in the world.

Guai Cao started to clamor again. Yun chujiu tried to suppress it a few times but failed. She could only accept her fate and start drinking the poisonous spring water. She knew that if she did not comply, guai

Cao might once again take control of her body, in that case, she might as well take the initiative to drink it.

The little skeleton originally thought that Yun Chujiu would be corroded the moment she fell into the poisonous spring. Although it might be punished for doing so, it really hated Yun Chujiu to the core. It would rather kill Yun chujiu than to harm the enemy.

However, it never expected that the stinky girl would not die after falling into the poisonous spring. Instead, she swam around comfortably. What was even more terrifying was that she was actually drinking the poisonous spring water.

Was she crazy? That was the poisonous spring! The poison in a mouthful of water could poison a hundred people to death. She, she was actually drinking it all the time?

The little skeleton looked on with a dumbfounded expression. Then, he suddenly discovered a shocking fact. The stinky girl was really not afraid of poison! Moreover, she, she was actually absorbing the poison in the poisonous spring!

The little skeleton was instantly numb!

If the poison was all absorbed by the Little Brat, how could this Misty Valley still be called Misty Valley? Putting everything else aside, those earth-burrowing spiritual mushrooms were going to be extinct!

However, the little skeleton could only bring people in, but it could not get them out. It was so anxious that it kept jumping.

“Little Brat, come out!”

Yun chujiu raised her head and looked at it disdainfully. “It’s very comfortable in here, why should I go out? I think this place is very good, I’m ready to settle down here!”
