

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1410

Time passed quickly. Two months had passed since Yun Chujiu went missing. Apart from a few people who thought that Yun Chujiu was still alive, the vast majority of people thought that Yun Chujiu was definitely dead.

Lan Luochen had been stubbornly waiting at the place where the Misty Valley disappeared. Tianyuan Academy had no choice but to expel him. Feng Ming and the other two had originally planned to stick around here, but di beiming said to them, "Little Jiu will definitely be fine. If she returns safely and finds out that you guys dropped out because of her, she will definitely be very angry."

Hearing what di beiming said, Feng Ming and the other two had no choice but to return to the Tianyuan Institute before school started.

Di beiming and Xue Wuji had a lot of matters to deal with, so they naturally couldn't keep waiting here. Moreover, the two of them were more confident than Lan Luochen, so little jiu would definitely be fine. Moreover, waiting here wouldn't be of much use, thus, they sent their subordinates to wait here, and the two of them left to handle their own matters.

Lan Luochen also knew that it was futile for him to wait here, but only by doing so could he alleviate the guilt in his heart and make himself feel better.

Although the Tianyuan Academy had been discussing Yun Chujiu's disappearance for quite a while, as time passed, the number of people who mentioned Yun chujiu gradually decreased, and everything returned to how it was in the past.

The ones who were the happiest were naturally deputy dean Yin and Yin Sulian.

They had thought that they would still need to expend some effort to kill Yun Chujiu, but they had not expected her to die just like that. It was truly a cause for celebration.

The spiritual power of Feng Ming and the other two rapidly increased, and they had already reached the ninth level of the spirit ancestor realm. They had practically spent all their time cultivating, because they felt that Yun Chujiu would not have died if it had not been for saving them, only by cultivating diligently could they reduce their guilt.

On this day, an explosive news spread across the Tian Yuan continent!

The Netherworld Academy of the Netherworld Continent openly issued a challenge to the Tian Yuan Academy. The words in the challenge letter were very provocative. Translated into plain English, it said: Your Tian Yuan Academy is the best academy in the Tian Yuan continent, our Netherworld Academy is also the Best Academy in the Netherworld Continent. Since that's the case, let's have a competition. The loser will have to pay the winner 100 million high-grade spirit stones.

Everyone understood that 100 million high grade spirit stones was nothing at all. The most important thing was that this was not an ordinary competition. What was at stake was the face of the two continents. If either side lost... , then the face of the continent that they represented would be completely disgraced.

After the Tian Yuan Academy received the challenge letter, the first thing they did was to inform all the major powers in the Tian Yuan continent. With di Linhan as the leader, all the major powers decided to accept the challenge.

The Netherworld Academy had done this on the orders of the Netherworld Palace. Perhaps this was just a test before the battle, so they had to accept the challenge. Otherwise, to the people of the Tian Yuan continent, it would definitely be a blow to their confidence.

The time for the competition was set to be one month later. The location was set not far away from the boundary between the two continents, the blazing sky wasteland. The blazing sky wasteland would often have sporadic heavenly flames descending, hence the name.

However, the undying grass growing in the burning sky wasteland was very strange. Even after being burned by the heavenly flames, it only needed one night to grow to two inches long, as if it had never been burned before.

In order to prevent the people from the Netherworld continent from attacking from here, the various large factions had sent people to patrol this place. However, the burning sky wasteland was really too big, and the spiritual power of the cultivators stationed here was limited, therefore, it basically did not have much of an effect. That was why the people from the Netherworld Hall had sneaked into the Tian Yuan continent many times.
