

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1422

Dean Huangfu's heart turned cold. It was over. He had been tricked by this little girl, Yun Chujiu! She didn't know how to refine pills at all! She was purely going up to play!

Forget it. Anyway, the boy who had been replaced was average at refining pills. Even if he were to go up, he wouldn't be able to get first place. Yun chujiu could do whatever she wanted!

Apart from Feng Ming and the other two, no one else was optimistic about Yun Chujiu. They all thought that Yun chujiu was just messing around. Even Vice Palace Master Liu of the Netherworld Palace curled his lips. This Yun Chujiu was obviously a little girl who was messing around. Dharma Protector Tao and Dharma Protector Lin must have been careless, otherwise, how could they have been killed by such a little girl?

The other nine contestants held their breaths and concentrated on refining. Yun chujiu finally closed the lid of the alchemy furnace. After about fifteen minutes., this fellow raised his claws. "Host, I've finished refining. Record it down. I was the first to finish refining! If there's someone with the same points as me later, remember that I'm Number One!"

Only one thought flashed through Dean Huangfu's mind. It's over! This fellow was just going up to cause trouble! Even if he was an amateur, he knew that refining the bone restoration pill would take at least an hour. Although an hour had already passed, Yun Chujiu had been dawdling all this while. The actual refining time was only half an hour! How could she possibly refine a pill? !

Yin Qinghua said with a fake smile: "Palace Lord, this Yun Chujiu is really... . TSK TSK, she really dares to say it! She actually said that she had finished refining it? I think that the only thing in her pill refining furnace is the spirit medicine juice. Maybe some of the spirit medicines have not even been refined into juice.”

Di Linhan thought the same in his heart, but on the surface, he said indifferently: “When the results are announced in a while, we will naturally know what is in her pill refining furnace. You have repeatedly targeted a junior, don’t you feel embarrassed?”

Xue Li said faintly: “Patriarch Yin, you have really broadened my horizons. You are the patriarch of the Yin family, but you have mocked a little girl time and time again, TSK TSK.”

Yin Qinghua’s face turned red from the ridicule of Di Linhan and Xue Li. He thought to himself, wasn’t this Xue Li always on bad terms with Di Linhan? Why was he also speaking up for that Damned Yun Chujiu? It was really detestable!

Seeing that the host had finished recording, Yun Chujiu simply took out a reclining chair and sat down on it. She closed her eyes to rest as she basked in the sun, as relaxed as she could be.

Everyone could only curse in their hearts, your heart is really big! This was a competition that concerned the reputation of the Tian Yuan continent, and you are taking it so lightly?

Di Linhan frowned slightly. Logically speaking, little jiu should not be such a child who did not know her limits. What was going on? Could it be that she had really completed the refinement?

Or could it be that she had been stimulated in the misty valley this time and her brain was not working properly? Di Linhan suddenly thought of the matter of Yun Chujiu bowing to him. Good heavens, could it be that this child had really been stimulated?

After another quarter of an hour, a student from the Netherworld Academy indicated that the refinement had been completed, followed closely by Baili Yan. Following that, the other seven people also completed the refinement.

When the ten judges saw that the contestants had completed the refinement, they stood up and began to check the condition of the medicinal pills of everyone in turn.

According to the order in which the workstations were placed, the judges began to check. Coincidentally, Yun Chujiu was the last one. In order to show respect to the judges, this fellow put away his chair and stood there to watch the show.
