

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1442

The host handed Yun Chujiu and Li Wei's talisman pens to the ten refining referees. The host was full of admiration for Yun Chujiu. No wonder the little girl asked him to help preserve the talisman pens. It turned out that she had already anticipated this scene, it was too monstrous!

Almost everyone had the same thoughts as him. Heavens, this Yun chujiu was simply not human! She had actually thought of all this ahead of time, so she had made preparations. She was really too smart!

Si Tushi was so angry that he gritted his teeth. Although he hated Yun Chujiu for being smart, he hated Li Wei even more, you piece of trash! He couldn't even hold on to his own pen and it had actually been snatched away by that smelly girl! It was fine if it had been snatched away, but why didn't you give referee Liu a warning? But now, the matter was about to be exposed, what should he do!

Di Linhan did not even know how to express his pride!

Good!

This was just too good!

That Little Brat bei Ming really had good taste!

When Xue Li saw the smug look on Di Linhan's face, he felt a little sour in his heart. HMPH, he did not believe that he would not be able to help Wuji find a wife who was even more amazing than Yun Chujiu? ! Let's wait and see!

At this moment, the ten artifact refining referees on the competition stage had already finished checking the two talisman pens. Among them, the five artifact refining referees from the Netherworld continent looked a little embarrassed. They did not expect that the Netherworld Academy would actually use such a despicable method, it was really disgraceful.

A refining referees from the Tianyuan continent said coldly, "We have finished checking. Li Wei's Dao Talismans are normal dao talismans. However, the DAO Talismans that Yun chujiu has broken, although it can't be seen from the outside, the inside of the pen shaft has been tampered with. As long as the spiritual power reaches a certain value, the pen shaft will break."

The crowd immediately exploded!

The Tianyuan continent's curses were as unpleasant as they could be. Even the people from the Netherworld continent felt that this matter was too embarrassing!

It was not impossible for you to do something. Don't let others find out about it. This time, you were caught by the Tianyuan continent. It was simply too embarrassing!

Si Tushi's forehead was once again covered in sweat. He gritted his teeth. At this point, he could only abandon his pawn to protect the cart., hence, he shouted angrily, "Liu Kui! I never thought that you would actually do such a despicable thing! Even though your starting point is for the Netherworld, what we want is an upright victory, not a victory that relies on means! You are simply too much!”

Liu Kui, who was also the triangular-eyed judge, was stunned at first. When he saw Si Tushi’s vicious gaze, he immediately understood si tushi’s meaning, he could only say, “Humph! One should take responsibility for one’s actions! This matter was indeed done by me. Since I’ve been discovered, I can’t Say Anything.”

“Tsk Tsk, your Netherworld continent is really heartless. Once something happens, you push your subordinates to take the blame. This judge Liu, I really feel bad for you!” “Your reputation in this lifetime will be ruined. TSK TSK, I don’t know if your master will kill you to silence you when we return. I’m really worried for you!” Yun chujiu said in a tone that said, “I’m doing you a favor!”.

The triangular-eyed judge’s heart was thumping heavily because of Yun Chujiu’s words. He knew Si Tushi’s character. Perhaps he would really kill him to silence him. Cold sweat dripped down his back. He had never thought that Si Tushi would actually kill Si Tushi.

Yun chujiu pursed her lips. Damn it! I’ll scare you to death! Play tricks with me, I’ll torture you to death!

The other nine talisman judges, seeing that the matter had been investigated thoroughly, had the host once again confirm the results of the competition. The winner of this round of Talisman competition was Tianyuan Academy.
