

When the contestants were concentrating on trying to communicate with the lie Yan red-tailed fox with spiritual sense, they felt a little dizzy..

The people below the competition stage were stupefied to see that the contestants on the stage had gone crazy!

“Hahaha! I Am the number one beast master in the Nether Academy! What Bullsh * t Li Han is just relying on his grandfather!”

“I like Nangong Wu the most in our class. That figure is simply too fantastical.”

“F * ck, the person I hate the most is Si Tushi! He only knows how to exploit us all day long. If we don’t give him gifts, he will give us little shoes to wear. Bah!”

“Mingzhu, Mingzhu, do you know that I like you? Although I know that I am not worthy of you, I love you deeply in MY HEART!”

There were only two people on the stage who were still normal. One was Li Han, who was already prepared, and the other was Yun Chujiu, who was chewing on the spiritual fruit.

Everyone else was trying to establish a spiritual connection with lie Yan's red-tailed fox, but this guy did not go over at all. Instead, he was sitting not far away and chewing on the spiritual fruit. Therefore, he was not affected by lie Yan's seductive technique.

Everyone below the stage immediately understood the reason for lie Yan's madness. It seemed that they had been affected by lie Yan's seduction technique. How could they control lie Yan successfully?

Although Si Tushi was annoyed by the student's nonsense, when he saw that Li Han was not affected by lie Yan's seduction technique, he heaved a sigh of relief. Those people no longer had the chance to compete with Li Han for the first place, the first place would definitely belong to Li Han.

As for Yun Chujiu who was eating the spirit fruit at the side, Si Tushi had already excluded her because he felt that Yun chujiu had not stepped forward for a long time and definitely did not know any beast taming techniques.

Many people below the stage thought the same. They thought that Yun Chujiu was quite smart and knew that she did not know any beast taming techniques, so she did not go near the fiery red-tailed fox to avoid making a fool of herself. The first place would sooner or later belong to Li Han of the Nether Academy.

Dean Huangfu was also a little flustered. Little Nine had learned the beast controlling technique for a year and a half, but he heard that her results were just so-so. Could she control a fiery red-tailed fox that was so much higher than her spiritual power?

At this time, Li Han had already begun to try to establish a spiritual connection with the fiery red-tailed fox. The fiery red-tailed Fox once again used its claws to beat the cage impatiently, not cooperating at all. Lie Yan was the only one who could control the fiery red-tailed fox.

Li Han's forehead began to sweat. This damned fiery red-tailed seductive fox. Previously, I had clearly successfully controlled other fiery red-tailed seductive foxes. Why Can't I do it today? Lie Yan, lie Yan, lie Yan, lie Yan, lie Yan, lie Yan, lie Yan?
