

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1446

Li Han almost fainted from Yun Chujiu's anger!

A few dozen catties of bewitching Beast Powder?

What do you take me for? I Am A F * cking demonic beast. If I swallow a few dozen catties of bewitching Beast Powder, I will also die!

The other four contestants from Tianyuan Academy heard Yun Chujiu's words and also said one after another, "That's right. Maybe he had taken some medicine beforehand and then said it was some secret technique. Humph, the people from Netherworld Academy are indeed treacherous!"

"Fortunately, Junior Yun is smart, or else she would be fooled by You Again! Since we are not allowed to use medicine, this Li Han is also not allowed to use secret techniques, or else it would be unfair to us!"

The people from the Tian Yuan continent also jeered, "That's right! There must be something wrong with that Li Han's blood! Your Netherworld continent is best at cheating!"

"That Li Han using secret techniques is cheating! He should be disqualified from the competition!"

Si Tushi was so angry that he gritted his teeth. This Damn Yun Chujiu was really too good at stirring up trouble!

The judge with the hooked nose sneered, "Shut up! You guys are really ignorant! It has been a long time since a beast master used a secret technique. The blood essence of the Beast Master entered the Demon Beast's divine sense, which made it easier to establish a divine sense connection. How could there be such a thing as cheating? "Everyone, tell me, does this secret technique count as cheating?"

The hooked nose asked the other nine referees. Although there were people from the Tian Yuan continent among the nine referees, they could not lie openly. This Beast Tamer's secret technique really could not be considered cheating.

Yun chujiu saw their expressions and knew what they meant, she rolled her eyes and said, "Even if the secret technique is not considered cheating, we still have to check if there are any prohibited drugs in Li Han's blood to convince everyone. How about this, Li Han, you put a basin of blood for the judges to check. If there are no prohibited drugs in it, then you can use the secret technique."

A Basin of blood?

Li Han's eyes were red with anger!

Are you going to test my blood or kill me?

In the end, Li Han still put out a few drops of blood. After the judges checked it, they proved that there were no prohibited drugs such as bewitching powder in his blood and he could continue to use the secret technique.

“Humph! Yun Chujiu, although you are very cunning, the first place of Beast Taming will definitely belong to me, Li Han!” After Li Han finished speaking, he squeezed out another drop of blood and began to chant.

He had just said one word when he heard Yun Chujiu’s roar. It scared him so much that he opened his eyes. The chant was interrupted, and the drop of blood fell to the ground.

“Judge! Yun chujiu has repeatedly interrupted me. Please disqualify her from the competition!” Li Han really wanted to go up and strangle Yun Chujiu to death. This damn brat must have done it on purpose!

The hawk-nosed referee immediately said angrily, “That’s right. This yun chujiu interrupted Li Han’s use of a secret skill for no reason. She should be expelled.”

Yun Chujiu said with a grievance, “I didn’t interrupt Li Han for no reason!” I want to ask one thing for everyone. Since Li Han can use a secret skill, then can we also use it? If we use it, it’s not against the rules, right?”

The hooked nose said disdainfully, "There are very few beast master's secret techniques passed down, and you still know the secret technique? Humph, if you know it, just use it. However, if you interrupt Li Han's secret technique again, you will be disqualified from the competition."

"Don't worry, don't worry. I still have to use my secret technique quickly. How can I have the time to interrupt his secret technique! ?"! "Everyone, please take a look. Our Yun family's secret beast-taming technique, which has been passed down for millions of years, is not easily seen by outsiders. Today, you will be lucky to see it!" Yun Chujiu said smugly.
