

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1447

The corners of everyone's eyes twitched violently!

You really dare to BRAG!

There is a limit to bragging, okay?

It has been passed down for millions of years? Millions of years ago, forget about beast taming techniques, there probably wasn't anyone!

Li Han also scoffed at Yun Chujiu's words. He glared at Yun Chujiu and once again squeezed out a drop of blood, preparing to chant.

At this moment.., yun chujiu said loudly, "Little Fox, come here, come here, come to me. I have chicken drumsticks here. As long as you obediently establish a spiritual connection with me, this roasted chicken drumstick in my hand will be yours!"

Li Han was stunned by Yun Chujiu's actions and forgot to chant. Damn, he had wasted another drop of blood essence.

Everyone was also shocked by Yun Chujiu's actions. Damn, was this the secret technique that she had been talking about for millions of years? What the hell are you playing at?

Do you think this flaming red-tailed Fox is an ordinary fox? Lie Yan thought? A chicken leg can be bribed? What a fantasy!

The flaming red-tailed Fox glanced at Yun chujiu with disdain. Is this little girl sick? She was very sick. Although the drumstick was quite fragrant, how could this fox abandon her integrity for a drumstick? In her dreams!

Yun chujiu was still mumbling, "This is not an ordinary drumstick. This roasted drumstick was obtained with great difficulty. You Don't know that the old Ding of our canteen has a very strange temper. I spent a lot of effort to get a few roasted drumsticks. How could it be easy for me?"

Yun Chujiu's mouth was dry as she spoke, but the flaming red-tailed Fox was also unmoved. Yun chujiu stomped her feet, "D * mn it! If you don't want to eat it, then forget it! I'll eat it myself!"

After this fellow finished speaking, he picked up the roasted chicken drumstick and began to eat it, as he ate, he said, "Hey, Li Han, don't you have a secret technique? Why aren't you using it? Did you see the secret technique I used and feel ashamed to use your secret technique?"

Li Han felt a chill down his spine. I feel ashamed to use your secret technique? You were the one who interrupted my secret technique, okay? This stupid girl was really too despicable!

Li Han forced himself to calm down. After he collected his thoughts, he squeezed out another drop of blood, then closed his eyes and began to chant, "With my blood..."

Li Han had just finished chanting when he heard Yun Chujiu's roar. He was so scared that he forgot the rest of the words!

"Hey! Little Fox! It seems that I have to use another secret technique passed down from my ancestors! This time, I will definitely make you obediently establish a spiritual connection with me!" Yun chujiu stomped her feet and shook her head as she said.

Li Han understood!

This guy did it on purpose. She just wanted to interrupt his secret technique!

"Referee, you all saw it. This Yun Chujiu doesn't know any secret technique at all. She is just deliberately causing trouble. I beg you to disqualify her from the competition." Li Han said angrily.

Yun chujiu placed her hands on her hips, she pointed at Li Han's nose and scolded, "Which eye of yours saw that I don't know any secret techniques? What I used just now was clearly a secret technique that has been passed down in our Yun family for millions of years. How could I allow you to fail and not allow me to fail?"

Why did I interrupt your secret technique when I was speaking? Are you blaming me for your own lack of concentration? According to your logic, wouldn't it mean that when you were taming the Beast, the beast would have to be obedient and not be able to make a sound? You are a waste, yet you still blame others. How Shameless!"

Li Han's face was flushed red from Yun Chujiu's rebuke. "You, you, you are twisting logic! I have never heard of using a chicken drumstick to successfully taming the beast. You are deliberately causing trouble!"

Yun chujiu bared her teeth. "One chicken leg is naturally not enough, but two might not be enough!"
