

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1450

Everyone looked at the scene on the stage in disbelief. They saw that the flaming red-tailed seductive Fox was extremely well-behaved and was listening to Yun Chujiu's words as it made its move. Lie Yan's eyes were filled with disbelief.

"Come, Little Fox, raise your claws to greet everyone."

Tears were streaming down the flaming red-tailed seductive Fox's face. It waved its claws at the people below the stage. F * ck, the Fox had lost all its face!

The people below the stage exploded!

The people from the Tian Yuan continent were so proud of themselves, they said arrogantly to the people from the netherworld continent, "TSK tsk, we, Yun Chujiu, are indeed powerful! So what if she told a story? She successfully controlled lie Yan's red-tailed seductive Fox by telling a story! Are you convinced? Even if you're not convinced, you have to be convinced! The first place is ours!"

"Hahaha! Not only does this round's victory belong to us, the first round's competition is three to two. We won! The first round's victory is also ours!"

"Winning first doesn't count as winning. Our refining and array formations are giving way to you. Otherwise, can you win? Tomorrow, in the second round of the spiritual energy competition, you will still lose!"

The people of the Netherworld continent felt as if their hearts were bleating. Damn it, they were still rejoicing at this time yesterday. Why did their mood fall into Hell in just one day?

Yun Chujiu!

It was all caused by that smelly girl, Yun Chujiu!

She had obtained first place in all three rounds of the competition!

Speaking of alchemy and talismans, we could still see some tricks. She won by relying on transcendent-grade elixirs and transcendent-grade talismans. It was just that this beast taming, how could she muddle-headedly tell such a stupid story.., how could that damned flaming red-tailed Fox lie Yan? How could you not have heard a story for hundreds of years? How could you be so cheap?

At this time, Li Han woke up. He saw that the flaming red-tailed seductive fox obediently listened to Yun Chujiu's command, immediately, he cried out in surprise, "Impossible! Impossible! Yun chujiu must have used a forbidden medicine. Otherwise, the flaming red-tailed seductive Fox would not have been successfully controlled by lie Yan!"

Li Han's words immediately aroused the resonance of the netherworld: "Yes! Yun chujiu must have used some shady means!"

"She must have used the beast to disperse it! or she must have used some other forbidden drug. Otherwise, how could she, a fifth level spirit master, control a twenty-fourth level demon beast successfully? This doesn't make sense!"

"Yun chujiu must have cheated! Her grades don't count!"

Yun chujiu glanced at Li Han. "TSK TSK, after you people from the Netherworld Academy lost, wouldn't the first thing you say is that the winner cheated?" Previously, your Dean Situ had publicly apologized to me for saying that I cheated. Now you're saying that I cheated again. If the judge decides that I didn't cheat, shouldn't you kneel in front of me and apologize?"

"Yun Chujiu, stop changing the topic! Not only do I suspect you of cheating, everyone else suspects you of cheating. It's impossible for you to successfully control the flaming red-tailed seductive fox. You must have cheated!" Li Han said angrily.

The hook-nosed judge immediately echoed, "That's right, I also suspect you of cheating!"

Yun chujiu snorted coldly, “You also suspect me of cheating? Just based on suspicion, you can spout nonsense? I even suspect that you’re not human! Don’t tell me that you’re not human?”

“You! How dare you!” Hawk-nosed could not contain his anger. He actually wanted to hit Yun Chujiu.

The other nine judges could not stand it anymore. The competition had turned into a farce. What kind of nonsense was this? !

One of the judges said, “Whether Yun Chujiu cheated or not is actually very easy to judge. Just ask this flaming red-tailed seductive fox directly.” Lie Yan’s eyes were filled with anger
