

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1453

The Hades Academy's encampment was in stark contrast to the Tianyuan Academy's encampment. It was eerily silent.

The originally good situation had been ruined by Yun Chujiu alone. Not only had she lost the competition, but she had also embarrassed herself. It was simply a great humiliation.

In Vice Palace Master Liu's tent, Si Tushi stood with his hands down. His forehead was covered in cold sweat, but he did not dare to wipe it off, afraid that Vice Palace Master Liu would blame him.

"Vice Palace Master Liu, this matter was supposed to be foolproof. I never thought that Yun Chujiu would appear out of nowhere. Didn't you say that she died in the Misty Valley?"

Vice Palace Master Liu snorted. "HMPH!" Foolproof? Is this what you meant by foolproof? Yun Chujiu was just a little girl in her teens, and she actually destroyed your so-called plan by herself! Is she too smart or are you too stupid?

"This, this little girl is really too strange. I, I really didn't think that she had such a high talent in alchemy and talisman. As for Beast Taming, I didn't think that that damned flaming red-tailed seductive Fox would be successfully controlled by her because of some kind of beauty or kindness. Lie Yan, don't worry. "Don't worry, I Promise You That We will definitely win tomorrow's spiritual power competition. There will definitely be no mistakes!" Si Tushi said confidently.

“Humph! If we lose tomorrow’s competition again, you know the consequences!” Vice Palace Master Liu Said Darkly.

“Yes! Yes! I know!” Si Tushi saw that this round had temporarily passed, so he took out a handkerchief to wipe the cold sweat on his forehead.

At this time, there was a secret guard outside the big tent who asked to see him. Vice Palace Master Liu agreed and signaled for people to come in.

After the secret guard came in, he saw Si Tushi hesitate for a moment. Vice Palace master Liu said indifferently, “We’re on the same side. It’s fine. Tell me, what’s the matter?”

“Vice Palace Master Liu, the Saintess received a voice transmission talisman and said that the person was not feeling well again. The SAINTESS said that she wanted to return to the Netherworld Hall ahead of time,” the secret guard reported back to Sheng NV.

Vice Palace Master Liu’s face immediately darkened. “B * Tch! If it wasn’t for... HMPH! I would have killed her and that wild man long ago! As the Saintess of the Netherworld Hall, she actually found a wild man on her own. She really has no sense of shame!”

Si Tushi deliberated for a moment before trying to persuade him. “Vice Palace Master Liu, please calm down. They have always been under your control. They will obediently submit to you sooner or later.”

“It’s been eleven years! I still haven’t managed to get any useful clues out of them! If that B * Tch still doesn’t want to tell me, I will kill that wild man! The SAINTESS can also change to someone else. It’s not that she has to do it!” Vice Palace Master Liu said through gritted teeth.

The bodyguard mustered up his courage and asked, “Vice Palace Master Liu, then, does the Saintess agree to Sheng NV’s request or not?”

Vice Palace Master Liu was silent for a moment. “For the time being, we can’t completely fall out with her. Tell that B * tch that she will leave after the competition starts tomorrow.”

“Yes!”

Seeing that the bodyguard had left, Si Tushi advised, “Vice Palace Master Liu, please calm down. Let alone the Netherworld Hall, even the Tian Yuan continent will be yours in the future! Why bother to lower yourself to that B * Tch’s level!”

When Vice Palace Master Liu heard Si Tushi’s words.., his expression softened a little. “We must not be careless in tomorrow’s competition. We must win no matter what. Otherwise, we will lose both stages of the competition. It will really be a huge blow to our morale.”

Si Tushi immediately swore a promise. "Don't worry. Tomorrow's competition will definitely be flawless. Our Netherworld Palace will definitely win."
