

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1517

When Nangong Luoyue and the others heard how serious Yun chujiu's words were, they could only grit their teeth and cut their arms. The pain made them grin, and their spiritual senses were indeed much clearer.

Yun Chujiu was stunned. "I didn't ask you to do it now. I meant to do it after we enter."

Everyone..

Everyone held back the thought of strangling Yun chujiu and asked, "This stone door looks extremely sturdy. How Do We Open It?"

Yun chujiu smiled mischievously. "Don't worry, we have a little expert in digging holes!"

Hence, Nangong Luoyue and the others looked at Xiao Hei with a dumbfounded expression as it started to dig a hole. Not long after, a huge hole was dug out from the sturdy stone door.

They only had one thought in their mind. Whoever said that this was an ordinary groundhog, they would beat him to death! This Xiao Hei was definitely not ordinary. It was either a strange beast or an immortal beast.

Just as everyone was about to enter, Yun Chujiu said, "You guys go in first. I'll cover the outside. Otherwise, if anyone finds out, they might kill and steal the treasure."

Everyone could not help but feel a little ashamed. They were so busy looking for the treasure that they did not even think about it. They were really too careless.

After waiting for everyone to enter, Yun Chujiu put away all the gravel on the ground. Then, she took out some vine seeds from her storage ring. She shamelessly poured a small amount of liquid into the guai Cao and diluted it into a large vat of water, she poured a basin of water on the vines, and the vines immediately began to grow at a speed visible to the naked eye.

The vines quickly covered a large part of the cliff wall. After Yun Chujiu removed the footprints on the ground, she took out a few large rocks from her storage ring and blocked the entrance of the cave.

Although Nangong Luoyue and the others were somewhat surprised by how Yun Chujiu was able to grow the vines, they tactfully did not ask. In their hearts, they admired Yun Chujiu's meticulousness even more.

After Yun Chujiu finished dealing with the entrance, she turned around and realized that they were only in a tunnel. There was a type of grapefruit grass growing on the wall of the tunnel. It was emitting a faint light, but there were many of them, it could also let people see the situation inside the tunnel clearly.

Yun chujiu smiled evilly. “Now, you can begin your masochistic journey. If you have nothing to do, just pull your wounds! Don’t look at this grapefruit grass. It looks quite beautiful, but did you see the Moss in the corner? It’s the Moonlight Moss. When the smell it gives off and the smell of the grapefruit grass are combined, it has the effect of causing hallucinations.”

Nangong Luoyue and the others could only continue to torture themselves in order to avoid falling into the hallucination. They couldn’t help but curse in their hearts. This genius was different from ordinary people. How could little jiu not fall into the hallucination?

Everyone continued to walk along the tunnel. Nangong luoyue suddenly said, “Wait, did you hear the sound of water droplets?”

Everyone listened carefully. It was true. The sound came from the front, as if there was the sound of water droplets falling down.

“Who cares! We’ll know when we get to the front!”Yun Chujiu said carelessly. Although this guy was afraid of death, he was more greedy. When they thought about the treasures inside, it was as if they were injected with chicken blood.

Everyone continued to walk forward and finally reached the end of the tunnel. They finally found the source of the sound of water dripping, and a cold wind blew behind them.

They saw an incomparably huge flood dragon crouching in a corner. The sound of dripping water was the sound of its saliva dripping onto the ground.

However, the giant aquatic dragon lay there lazily, as if it had no intention of attacking them.
