

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1546

"Jinse, you're being too polite. There's no need to be so polite in our relationship. I'm about the same as my senior brother and sister. Coming to the temple of Immortals is like going back to my mother's house." Although Madam Lan was jealous, she did not show it on her face, her tone was very intimate.

Yun chujiu sighed in her heart. The straightforward old witch was no match for Old White Lotus. Looking at her tone and how affectionate she sounded, she did not know that the old witch did not come from a good family background and was still so straightforward., how did she manage to get her hands on the Pretty Boy's father? Could it be that she had forced herself to sleep with him?

Yun chujiu saw the change in the palace mistress's expression and knew that this was a sign of her losing her temper. She could only mischievously interrupt, "Aunt, who is this madam? Quickly introduce her to me!"

The palace mistress's anger dissipated a little after Yun chujiu interrupted her. She said lightly, "This is your uncle's junior sister, the Lan family's mistress. You can just call her madam LAN."

Yun Chujiu was secretly happy. The old witch's personality was really unique. She could only say with a smile, "Madam Lan, Little Jiu greets you!"

Madam Lan frowned indiscernibly. This was the Yun chujiu that Luo Chen missed? Although she was very beautiful, her personality was really not likable. She was as annoying as that slut ye jinse!

“So you are little nine? Thank goodness you sold that purple sunflower grass to Luo Chen. Otherwise, this old illness of mine would be very difficult to cure.” Madam Lan emphasized the word “Sell” without batting an eyelid.

Yun Chujiu naturally would not suffer such a loss, she sighed and said, “Madam Lan, I think you might not know much about what happened. That purple sunflower grass was not mine. It was my aunt’s. It was not easy for my aunt to obtain it. When she heard that you needed it, she entrusted me to give it to Lan Luochen.

I didn’t expect Lan Luochen to give me spirit stones no matter what. He said that if I didn’t accept the spirit stones, he wouldn’t take the purple sunflower grass, so I had no choice but to accept it!

Madam Lan, from what you said just now, it seems that you feel that I shouldn’t accept this spirit stone. Since that’s the case, you can take back the money. We didn’t want it originally, and our hall of eternal life might be lacking in other things., but the one thing we don’t lack the most is spirit stones! It’s such a pity that my aunt was so kind-hearted, but she was actually said to be doing it for the money. Really, sigh!”

Yun Chujiu’s final sigh could be said to be filled with profound meaning. After a thousand twists and turns, Madam Lan’s face immediately turned red. This wretched lass, her mouth was indeed as sharp as the legends said. She was really hard to deal with.

“Little Nine Lass, you’ve misunderstood. I didn’t mean that at all. It was just a slip of the tongue. Senior, you know me. My thoughts are simple and I don’t know how to speak. Quickly help me explain. Don’t let Jin Se and little nine lass misunderstand.” Madam Lan looked at Di Linhan meekly, she said in a slightly coquettish tone.

Yun chujiu was so disgusted that she almost vomited. Emma, no wonder the old witch hated this madam Lan so much. To Act coquettishly in front of her husband in front of her wife, are you sick?

“That’s right, uncle. My mother did not mean that at all. This little nine lass has a sharp tongue. She is really too amazing! Luo Xue’s mouth is clumsy and she is really ashamed of her inferiority.”The young girl said coquettishly.

What the hell! Two White lotuses, one big and one small! It was really strange. Lan Luochen had such a cold personality, how could he have such a mother and such a sister? Could it be that he came out of the mud untainted?
