

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1559

Madam Lan looked at the backs of Yun Chujiu and manager Luo and was so angry that she almost fainted, she quickly asked Lan Luoxue in a low voice, "Luoxue, are you alright? Let's go see your uncle, the palace master, in case that B * Tch Yun chujiu sues us first."

Lan Luoxue was in so much pain that her clothes were almost soaked in sweat. She screamed, "Mother, I'm in so much pain! I'm really in so much pain!"

Only then did madam LAN realize that Lan Luoxue was not acting. She quickly checked her pulse, but she did not find anything wrong. Even though Yun Chujiu's kick was not light, it did not cause any substantial damage to her internal organs, it was just a flesh wound. "Luoxue, there's nothing wrong with your body?"

"Mother, I'm telling the truth. There's not a part of my body that isn't in pain. I'm in so much pain! Mother, that B * Tch Yun chujiu must have poisoned me. Please take me to the temple master's uncle."

When Madam Lan saw Lan Luoxue say that, she immediately became anxious and quickly got the two maids to carry Lan Luoxue to the living room.

Di Linhan and the Palace Lord's wife had just gotten rid of their "Misunderstanding" and were in the middle of their sweet moment when a maid reported from outside: "Palace Lord, Madam, Lady Jiu was beaten up by Madam Lan and is crying in the living room!"

“What? That B * Tch actually dared to hit little jiu?”The Palace Lord’s wife was immediately enraged and she stood up in a flash.

Di Linhan said with slight displeasure: “Jin Se! Watch your words, your words are so vulgar, how is that proper? ! The matter has not been investigated properly, do not jump to conclusions. Fourth Junior Sister has always been reasonable, why would she hit Little Jiu?”

The palace Lord’s wife was so angry that she gritted her teeth, but when she thought of Yun Chujiu’s instructions... , she could only say coldly: “Then go and see what is going on. Let’s get straight to the point. If it was really your good junior sister who hit Little Jiu, I will not be polite to her.”

Di Linhan paused for a moment and then said: “Little Jiu has always been mischievous, it must be her who is causing trouble again. Junior sister is an elder, how could she hit Little Jiu? Let’s go and see what is going on.”

The two of them had not even reached the entrance of the living room when they saw quite a number of servants gathered outside, seeing di Linhan and the Lady of the hall coming over... , one after another, they said: “Hall master, Lady of the Hall master, although there are some things that we should not say, but that Lady Lan has gone too far! “The ninth young miss was clearly there to apologize, but she actually chased after the ninth young miss and beat her up. If it wasn’t for manager Luo stopping her, the ninth young miss might have lost her life!”

“That’s right, we all heard the ninth miss’ miserable screams and even saw the ninth miss escape from the guest house in a sorry state. That Madam Lan is really too much.”

“That’s right, the ninth miss went to apologize so sincerely, but she actually almost lost her life. How pitiful! The ninth miss was almost crying until she couldn’t breathe!”

The Lady of the palace hall could not contain her anger: “Chu Lingyun has really gone too far! Husband, do you still want to defend her?”

“Jin Se, don’t be anxious. Let’s go in and take a look at little ninth’s situation before we discuss what to do.” Di Linhan had initially not believed it in his heart, but when he heard so many people saying that, he immediately began to believe it a little, he was very displeased. Fourth junior sister, no matter how wrong little ninth was, she was still your junior, and you actually wanted to kill her? This was too much!

Although the palace master’s wife wished she could go and settle the score with Madam Lan right away, she was more worried about Yun chujiu. Thus, she rushed into the guest hall and saw Yun chujiu sitting there crying with disheveled hair. She was crying pitifully and was out of breath, it was as if she was going to faint at any moment.
