

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1566

Yun chujiu ignored di Linhan and instead said to elder qu: "Elder Qu, you said that I have not been injured before but you have overlooked one point. I have already taken a healing elixir and that is why I have recovered to my original state."

Elder qu snorted coldly: "HMPH! Even if you had taken a transcendent grade elixir, you would not have recovered so quickly. Little girl, don't quibble. This old man is very busy and I do not have the time to meddle in your affairs."

After elder Qu finished speaking, he was about to leave when he didn't expect Yun Chujiu to leap in front of him. Her right hand shook and elder Qu was instantly stunned on the spot.

"This, this, how is this possible? What did you take just now? But?" Elder Qu was so agitated that he couldn't even finish his words.

Yun chujiu smiled faintly and handed the medicinal pill in her hand to elder qu, "Elder Qu, what I took just now was this kind of medicinal pill."

After elder Qu received the pill, he rubbed his eyes and looked at it carefully before sniffing it again. He was so excited that his hands were trembling. "This, where did this come from?"

“Brother Bei Ming’s master gave it to me. Elder Qu, after I was injured, I originally wanted to eat an ordinary blood coagulation pill. However, I was too rushed and accidentally ate such a pill. Now, you should believe that I was really injured before, right?” Yun chujiu had an aggrieved expression.

“What a reckless waste of a heavenly gift! What a reckless waste of a heavenly gift! Such a precious pill, and you actually wasted it just like that! What a pity! Hall master, I was blind just now. This lady should have been injured, but the pill she took was too precious, so I didn’t see through it.

Since she was in a hurry to take the pill, then she must have been seriously injured, she must have suffered serious internal injuries.” Elder Qu was a medicine addict, and his heart was like a cat scratching. He really wanted to ask Yun chujiu if she had any other elixirs, but the prerequisite was to keep her here, so he added another sentence.

Di Linhan was stunned. Little Jiu was really injured? Could it be that I’ve wronged her?

Madam Lan was anxious. “Elder Qu, you said earlier that Yun Chujiu wasn’t injured, why are you changing your words now? Besides, it’s impossible for any elixirs to heal her injuries so quickly, you’re lying!”

Elder Qu snorted coldly, completely ignoring Madam Lan.

Di Linhan said in a low voice, “Fourth junior sister, shut up! I trust elder Qu’s character and medical skills. Did you really hit little jiu?”

Madam Lan's heart turned a few times. It seemed that this elder Qu's words carried a lot of weight. She had to avoid the important points and make it light, hence, she said, "Senior brother, at that time, I only used the palm wind to force Yun chujiu away. At most, she only suffered some superficial injuries. Elder Qu was just making a deduction. "No matter what, Yun Chujiu's beating of Luo Xue first was all her fault. Senior brother, please help us make a decision."

Di Linhan had been blinded by his rage earlier and now, when he caught a glimpse of the palace Lord's wife whose eyes were slightly red, as well as the cold and threatening di beiming, when he saw the disapproving expressions on elder Xu and elder Qu's faces, he felt a tinge of regret in his heart.

Hence, he pondered for a moment before he said: "Little Nine Lass, since you did not poison her and you are also injured, then let's make this matter a small one. You should immediately apologize to your aunt Lan and that Lass Luo Xue, and let's forget about this matter!"

What?

The mother and daughter of the Lan clan immediately became anxious!

Forget about apologizing? Wasn't he already going to chase her out earlier?

Lan luoxue immediately said, "Uncle Palace master, Yun Chujiu beat me up like this and slandered my mother. Just like that?"

Madam LAN also said aggrievedly, "Senior brother, are you planning to protect Yun Chujia? She used words to humiliate US yesterday and today she beat up Luoxue. Just like that? Senior Brother, you have disappointed me!"
