

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1577

"Could it be that Little Jiu has fallen into the forbidden area again? This little scoundrel, why did she come to this forbidden area for no reason? What should we do now?" The palace mistress was angry and anxious.

Di beiming sighed, "Mother, you don't have to worry too much. Little Jiu will definitely be fine. Didn't she come out safely last time? This time, she will definitely be fine."

The palace master's wife could only sigh and say, "Sigh, don't worry too much. Even your master has no way to open this forbidden area. We can only wait for Little Jiu to come out on her own."

Di beiming nodded and had no choice but to have people stand guard around the forbidden area. He hoped that Yun Chujiu would come out earlier this time.

Moreover, the unlucky Yun chujiu could not move the black bead at her command. She could only think of a way to save herself.

She kept hacking at the edge of the space with the big kitchen knife. The space in the forbidden land kept getting bigger. The strange thing was that the branches and leaves of the Hun Dun fruit tree covered the area as the space got bigger.

"F * ck, I don't believe that you can keep growing even if I keep hacking!" This guy was competing with her!

Therefore, Yun Chujiu started to hack at the space — eat, sleep — and then hack at the space.

The trunk of the Hun Dun fruit tree became thicker and thicker. Its branches and leaves covered the entire forbidden space, and it even began to bear fruit.

Yun Chujiu was also discouraged. It seemed that no matter how much space she cut, it would be occupied by this damn hun dun fruit tree. If that was the case, why would she waste her energy? She might as well wake up the black bead!

Yun chujiu was competing with the black bead again. She scolded it a few thousand times a day. Unfortunately, the black bead still looked like a corpse and did not respond at all.

Yun chujiu was really at her wit's end this time. Could it be that she was trapped here and died? The gigolo said that even his master could not open this forbidden area. Could it be that she really could not get out?

boxn ov el. c o m

Yun chujiu gritted her teeth and stared at the Hun Dun fruit tree. Damn it, it was all because of this damn tree! If it was not for it, she would definitely not have been implicated.

Yun chujiu forced herself to calm down and began to recall the entire process.

When she dug the hole, there was nothing unusual. When the small tree grew up, there was nothing unusual. It seemed that the moment the flower bloomed, there was a change. What did this mean? Could it be that the fragrance of the flower attracted something? In other words, something was craving for the fruit of Hun Dun?

If that was the case, if she ripened the fruit of Hun Dun, would she be able to leave?

Although Yun Chujiu felt that this hypothesis was a little unreliable, she could only try her best. Hence, she forced the guai Cao to produce another two drops of liquid, causing the leaves of the guai Cao to become much dimmer. obviously.., this liquid was condensed from the essence of its body.

After Yun chujiu diluted the liquid, she began to water the roots of the fruit of Hun Dun. The green fruits began to mature at a speed visible to the naked eye. The entire space was filled with a strange fragrance.

Something that Yun Chujiu thought did not appear. The ripe fruits on the tree began to fall to the ground and quickly grew into new Hun Dun fruit trees. Wherever their branches and leaves went, the space was forcefully squeezed open, the space rapidly expanded..

Yun chujiu was shocked by the scene in front of her!

Oh My God, this, this is too strange!

However, this fellow did not forget to pluck her hair at this moment. She thought to herself that she had wasted two drops of the growth promoting liquid. If she did not pluck a few fruits, she would be letting the guai Cao down. Hence, this fellow leaped onto the Hun Dun fruit tree and began to pluck the fruits.